INTRODUCTION

LIKE Aniruddha (Anawyatha Min Saw), Hti Hlaing Shin (Kyanzittha), Hanthawady Sinbyu Shin (Bayin Naung), Alaungmintaya (U Aung Zayya) and Mindon after him, King Badon (Bodawpaya) was a usurper on the Burmese throne and like his every other counterpart, he tried to rule with benevolence. In addition to this, he was king for thirty seven years. That is why his reign is remarkable. Soon after he made himself king, he tried hard to restore peace and order in the kingdom (ROB 11 February 1782, 25 February 1782& 19 July 1782). Men in the King's service, including those of the former king, were administered oath of allegiance to the new king (ROB 12 February 1782, 14 February 1782, 18 February 1782 & 28 February 1782). Next, the beginning of a new reign was announced both in the capital city as well as in the provinces (ROB 12 February 1782 & 18 February 1782). To convey the news as quickly as possible to far off corners of the kingdom, messengers on horseback were used. To prevent any possible uprising by the followers of former king, all men and officers of ex-King Singu were put under house arrest (ROB 13 February 1782). He shew his magnanimity, however, from the very beginning by his solemn promise that life and property of them would be in no way molested (ROB 22 February 1782 & 24 February 1782). Later when he found a few cases of property confiscation, he had it restored immediately and punished the responsible officers (ROB 29 June 1782).

After having established firmly his control in the land, the King turned his attention to put right what he called maladministration of former reigns. He tackled three major problem.

1. Correct boundary demarcations so that not a single inch of Religious Land was inadvertently lost in any part of Royal Lands; similar checks should be made between the territories of one administrative unit with another (ROB 24 March 1783, 27 July 1785, 1 September 1785 and 3 December 1787).

2. Redefine jurisdictions (ROB 10 March 1782, 3 June 1782, 16 August 1783, 28 July 1787, 18 August 1787, 14 October 1787, 14 November 1787, 26 November 1787 & 14 December 1787)

3. Check the list of service groups so that no one should be serving a group to which he does not actually belong; this also included the children of intergroup marriages. After having the lists, etc. checked, it would be necessary to update the palace Archives as well as the Athi-Common Folks, lists in all the villages and towns (ROB 17 November 1783, 27 November 1783, 1 December 1783, 7 December 1783, 25 December 1783, 31 March 1784, 16 August 1784, 28 August 1784, 3 December 1784, 9 July 1787, 27 July 1787 & 2 August 1787).

Since a man was placed in his own or proper place, the king felt that he should pass specific orders so that no man would be called away from his rightful duty to do anything else (ROB 1 April 1784). He wanted these Orders to be strictly obeyed, because for instance, palace guards were to remain stand-by in their respective posts twenty four hours a day (ROB 3 March 1784 & 20 February 1785); no cultivator of Royal Lands shall be pressed into fighting forces (ROB 8 August 1787); nor any other cultivator should be working in a Royal Land (ROB 8 August 1787); no scribes employed in Pitaka copying should be called upon to do anything else (ROB 30 June 1783, 20 September 1785, 25 September 1785 & 14 December 1785); no Brahmin should be asked to conduct any other ceremony except those that he had been used to do like his ancestors before him (ROB 1 April 1784); no cultivator should be called away from his field during the growing season (ROB 26 June 1784).

About the hereditary line of a chief at any locality, the King's express command was Ta Yo a pyin Hna Yo ma shi ya- there shall be no two lines of hereditary chief in any place. Only one line is permissible (ROB 21 July 1786 / Amyint, 11 November 1786 / Laung Bo, 24 November 1786 / Kaing, 25 November 1786 / Akyay Hse Ywa, & 27 February 1787 / Maw Hka). On the other hand the King wanted Kyee Yo Ke Yo - Hereditary officers, to report their duties as well as their privileges, vis.

1. Htan Yo Ywet Yo -Services rendered for many generations until now;

2. Wut Sin Si Nin Hsaubg Ywet Yo-offical and ceremonial dresses, style of horse harness, elephant howdah, litter, boat, etc. and decorations for things of everyday use; and finally

3. Kauk Yo Sa Yo - Customary dues exacted from land or market or at ferry or told gate or in a law court and the share for the officer who collected them (ROB 19 April 1785).

As a matter or fact, the tax generally was ten per cent of the annual agricultural produce on all crops or one tenth of the commodity sold or brought in transit to a ferry or a told station (ROB 25 February 1782, 31 August 1783, 31 December 1783, 30 July 1787, 15 August 1787, 19 December 1787 & 26 December 1787). Punishment would be severe if the dues were found to have been collected in excess (ROB 24 August 1784).

Fees taken at a law court shall also be fixed. There were fee given either to start a trial, or to finish a trial, or to copy a judgement for an appeal or to summon a witness as well as the fees paid to ones pleader (ROB 3 March 1782 & 24 August 1784). In times of war, each household was asked to contribute ks 3 toward war fund and the King wanted to check the accounts on war fund (ROB 28 August 1787). The King also wanted to know how the money collected was used. He asked expense accounts from all offices once in every six months (ROB 21 August 1785).

In a trial to settle disputes at a law court, the King was favour of the old maxin;

> Kee thi zaga go nge aung; nge thi zaga go pabyauk aung- Minismise the tall words and ignore the trifles

(ROB 3 March 1782).

And to keep the rate or crime low, the King said that officers should not simply wait until a complaint was made; they should do the investigations to find malpractices, etc. in the hope that it would prevent crimes (ROB 31 August s1783). When a decision was to be made, he urged that a judge should refer to either one or all of Damathat, Yazathat and Hpyat Htone (ROB 3 March 1782, 18 August 1783, 12 November 1783, 25 December 1783 & 29 August 1784) or Damathat, Yazathat and Sittan (ROB 19 April 1785). When there was a panel of judges, decision should be unanimous (ROB 12 November 1783) and there should be no ex-parte decision (ROB 29 August 1784). An appeal to a higher authority was always possible (ROB 18 August 1783). The King was also of the opinion that judges should be above bribery and corruption (ROB 7 January 1784). In cases of debt, the King brought forth two principles, viz.

1. Moke hso ma wun - Payment of a debt would be done as a widow does a hard word in easy stages; and

2. Pin yin det ahket ma pwa ya - the sum total of branches shall not exceed the main trunk of a tree, i.e. the total of interest given shall not exceed the original amount of loan taken (ROB 3 March 1782).

There was a possibility that a sort of biased decision was passed when an officer appeared in court on behalf of one contending party. So that was forbidden (ROB 3 March 1782, 14 August 1783, 18 August 1783, 29 August 1783, 7 January 1784, 30 June 1784 and 25 February 1785). Only a licensed pleader had to represent a client and he should made his arguments within the limits of Damathat only (ROB 29 August 1783). Third degree interrogation was allowed in all criminal charges (ROB 17 October 1783) and a thief must name his associates and his words taken as good evidence to criminate those so named (ROB 24 July 1784) though in some cases a statement of one one prisoner would be checked against that of another (ROB 5 November 1787). Taya Yon seems to be a civil court apart from Hluttaw, because we have one reference where a family dispute (on inheritence), was sent to Taya Yon (ROB 12 November 1783). As a matter of fact, Shay Yon - East Court, was the criminal court and criminal procedure was given in detail (ROB 12 February 1785). This code also deals with punishments of beheading, burning, crucifixion, drowning, exiling, mutilation of legs and limbs, putting in the sun, sending to join very tough work forces, thrashing, etc. A detailed description of Kaba Lay Yut - Four Trials by ordeal, is given as well. Various duties assigned to executioners called Let Ma Yun - No Hesitation Executioner, and Let Ma Htauk - No restraint Executioner, are defined. The King, however, expected Hluttaw to do general administration. Hluttaw therefore was to deal with:

Yazawut	Yay - Affairs of the King.
Taing	Yay- Affairs of the Provinces.
Pyi	Yay- Affairs of the Capital City, and
Thathana	Yay- Affairs of the Religion (ROB 4 November 1786).

Conspiracy against the King was taken as the biggest offence in Yazawut Yay - Affairs of the King. Prince Pindale was found trying to assassinate the King (ROB 28 April 1784, 28 September 1784, 7 July 1785, 8 July 1784, 10 July 1784 & 18 July 1784). His followers ors people suspected party to this conspiracy were executed.

Among the Taing Yay- Affairs of the Provinces, the following cases would serve as samples.

- Myo Wun - Town Officer, Pagan, shall restore the genitals removed from the stone lions in Shwezigon; the King did not consider them indecent (ROB 22 September 1784).
- Standard spelling is prescribed (ROB 3 July 1783, 14 December 1785 & 29 December 1785).

- Use only the 'round script' to write the Burmese alphabets (ROB 29 December 1785).
- Presents brought to Rangoon by froeigners must be divided equally between Town officers, Port officer and Customs officer (ROB 28 July 1787)
- Cultivate all available land and grow any suitable crop in order to increase food production (ROB 21 September1787).
- Appoint a special officer to take charge of Royal Lands in a certain area (ROB 15 September 1787 & 1 December 1787).
- Determine the boundary between Arakan and Burma proper (ROB 14 October 1787).
- on irrigation, observe the following five points:

  1 Royal Lands have top priority to receive water distributed from reservoirs;
  2 Canal used for water distribution should be in good repair at all times;
  3 Water is to be shared among various fields strictly in accordance with the quota mentioned in old records; and
  4 Works at weirs in Kyaukse area are always given first preference; officers at Kyaukse have the authority to commandeer any man for any emergency (ROB 15 September 1787); and 5 Enlarge the width of canals so that they carry more water for distribution (ROB 24 September 1787).

- Men under Kyi Wun - Granaries Officer, are widespread in various areas; local chiefs have no authority over them (ROB 14 November 1787).
- Recall 180 men from Mo Maw silver mines, Mong Mit (ROB 30 November 1784).
- Trace Hpaya athi - Men of Pagoda, and Kyaung Athi - Men of Monastery (ROB 25 February 1782).
- People shall come and pay obeisance to White Elephant (ROB 6 July 1787).
- Members of ten families are turned into Elephant Slaves (ROB 21 August 1787).

- Start the Elephant Dance (ROB 12 September 1787).
- Made offerings to Elephant Guardian Spirits and send off Wild Elephant Capturing Teams called Aukma - Group using Decoys to capture Wild Elephants , and Danet Pala- Group Taming the Captured Wild Elephants (ROB 14 November 1787).

On Pyi Yay - Affairs of the Capital City, we come across many interesting orders that reveal some part of the city life in those days.

- Road safety comes first; punish reckless horseriders (ROB 29 December 1782, 16 October 1783 & 14 March 1784)
- Prepare fire fighting (ROB 6 February 1783 & 28 January 1785)
- Segregate prostitutes (ROB 27 July 1783)
- Segregate lepers (ROB 11 August 1787)
- Extend the area of cemeteries (ROB 27 July 1783)
- Give some suitable sites elsewhere for religious lands in the city limit (ROB 3 December 1787).

When the King decided to build Amarapura;

- Prices of building material and wages are fixed (ROB 21 December 1782).
- Residential areas are plotted out (ROB 11 Julys 1783)
- City defenses are strengthened (ROB 1 February 1782, 4 February 1783 s & 29 August 1787)
- Announce time from a tower (ROB 20 February 1782)
- Made Thayet Kan garden beautiful and rename it Nanda Wun garden (ROB 23 July 1787, 19 August 1787, 31 August 1787, 3 September 1787 & 9 September 1787)
- Water level in the city moat should be kept high by a constant flow of water through a canal from Zaung Kalaw reservoir (ROB 14 September 1787)

- In all the city markets as well as in all business transactions throughout the Kingdom, the use of standard weights and measures is enforced (ROB 20 February 1782 & 16 October 1783).

- Stop using various types of silver called Wun Bwa - Extended Belly, Ngwe Soe - Silver Sprout and Ywet Thay - Small Silver; and only the standard silver called Ywet Ni - Red Leaf, should be used (ROB 16 October 1783, 6 March 1784, 23 July 1785, 12 April 1785 & 16 October 1787).

- Stop using old seals and old coins of Arakan; issue new seals and coins for Arakan (ROB 14 October 1787).

As a matter of fact, the things that King prohibited made a rather interesting study.

- Common folks shall not wear clothes reserved for aristocrats (ROB 6 March 1784)

- Making and selling cloths that do not come up to the mark are prohibited (ROB 6 March 1785)

- Common folks shall not use Pinni jacket and Yaw shaws (ROB 3 April 1784)

- First blossoms of orchid are for the palace exclusively (ROB 26 December 1783)

- No military parade in the city limits (ROB 13 August 1787)

- Export of rice from Rangoon, Bassein and Tavoy is prohibited (ROB 13 November 1787)

- Use of musical instruments gilted and decorated with glass mosaic outside the palace is prohibited (ROB 11 November 1787)
- check the following to know whether they would be good for further use : boats, carriages, elephants, horses, steamers. etc.; check all stock in granaries and stores to find out how much new stock is necessary to replenish them (ROB 12 September 1787).

- Commandeer all blacksmiths and seize all iron in the kingdom to make guns (ROB 5 July 1787, 6 July 1787 & 28 August 1787)

- Than Khyet Wun - Officer of Casting Iron, shall ask all the men he wants for gun making, from Athi Wun - Officer of Common Folks (ROB 28 August 1787)

- Send money post haste to Rangoon and Bassein to buy guns from foreign ships or foreigners (ROB 5 September 1787)

- Akauk Wun - Officer of Customs, Rangoon, (shall buy all) guns that arrived at Rangoon (ROB 4 December 1787)

All these show that the King and his Hluttaw had an ever watchful eye and an untiring energy to go into details for the good of the people except a denial of few luxuries.

On Thathana Yay - Affiars of the Religion, the King professed to help the monks in suppressing heresy and in propagating the Teachings of the Buddha on the one hand and in having a short of religious reformation on the other hand. Eventually he found himself against the whole monk population because of his radical ideas. Believing that the Vinaya is the mainstay of the monk organization, he prescribed Vinaya examinations and compelled any monk to leave the monkhood if he failed in the examination. Monk population dwindled. Perhaps he did more damage being helpful to the monks in his kingdom. The following march of events bear witness to this fact.

- Four Guardians of the Religion were appointed (ROB 10 March 1782)

- In the Atin Ayon controversy, let the exponents of both groups meet in debate (ROB 10 March 1782 & 3 June 1782)

- Suppress the Zawti Sect (ROB 15 July 1783, 17 July 1783 & 8 September 1783)

- Give a course in the Vinaya and conduct oral examinations to find out whether a monk has a sufficient knowledge of the Vinaya or not; after second failure in such an examination, a monk shall leave the monkhood (ROB 12 March 1784)

- Exile ex-monk Atula now called Nga Pan Htwe, leader of the Atin Sect, together with his disciples (ROB 21 April 1784, 23 April 1784 & 27 April 1784)

- Hluttaw shall name the where the Buddhist missions should be sent (ROB 15 June 1784)

- The missionaries shall start their journey (now) in order to reach their respective destinations in time to begin the Buddhist Lent there (ROB 2 July 1784)

- Schism among the Buddhist Order of Monks has been effectively stopped; record this in an inscription on stone (ROB 28 August 1784)

- Mahadan Wun - Religious Affairs Officer, shall report bi-annually on Religious Examinations Preparatory School (ROB 8 July 1785)

- Check religious lands and if the original religious establishment to which the land had been dedicated is no longer in existence, rededicate the land to another religious establishment in the locality; record this in an inscription on stone; Guardian of the Religion shall write a prologue to this record (ROB 22 August 1785)

- Gunamunindabhisadahmmadhajamahammarajadhirajaguru is appointed Guardian of the Religion and a committee of twelve is also appointed to help him (ROB 27 June 1786)

- Nanabhivamsadhammasenapatimahadhammarajadhirajaguru is appointed Guardian of the Religion (ROB 19 March 1787)
- Open a school of training Buddhist missionaries in the capital; when the graduates are sent to provinces, local chiefs at their destinations shall give them all possible help including the foundation of Sima-

Ordination Halls, to receive new members in the Order of Buddhist Monks (ROB 25 July 1787)

- Shwe Myin Mi Sayadaw failed in the Vinaya examination; he shall leave the monkhood with a tattoo mark on his ribs saying that he had been dismissed from the Order for his unworthiness (ROB 11 October 1787)

- A novice, after being a novice for two years and if he wants to remain a novice, must sit for an examination on rules of the novicehood; if he fails in the examination, he shall have to leave the religious life with a tattoo mark on his ribs saying that he was a failure as a novice (ROB 9 October 1787)

- Gine Ok - Area Leader of Monks, and Gine Dauk - Local Leader of Monks, shall come to the city to sit for the Vinaya examination (ROB 12 October 1787)

- Religious examinations shall be conducted daily from 28 ctober 1787 until 18 July 1788; Mahadan Wun - Religious ffairs Officer, shall make a list of candidates and punish those ho failed the examinations (ROB 17 October 1787)

King Badon claimed that his war against Arakan was in the causes of the Religion (See Than Tun : "Paya Lanma - Lord's Highway, over the Yoma - Yakhine Range", Journal of Asian and African Studies, ILCAA, Tokyo University to Foreign Studies, XXV 1983, pp.233-41). He said that the Buddha's Religion was in the wane in Arakan and he took it his responsibility to make it thrived there again. He also wanted to move Mahamuni, the Great Image, from Kyauktaw to Amarapura. Ahmu Daw Kaung Ya Laik Htan - Follow and serve where the King needs your services most, is the regular phrase to denote war service.

- War-like preparations started early (ROB 8 September 1784)

- Political prisoners as well as criminals are sent along in the

Arakan campaign with the fighting forces (ROB 28 September1784 & 2 October 1784; Order to start the campaign was given on 16 October 1784 and the Arakanese King was captured on 20 January 1785; the raft that brought Mahamuni arrived at the Amarapura jetty on 27 April 1785)

- Giving no expressed religious cause, war against Thaland begun (ROB 21 July 1787)

- Criminals join the Thai campaign (ROB 2 August 1787 & 20 October 1787)
- Get more recruits in the fighting forces; train the recruits quick; punish the deserters severely (ROB 17 February 1783 & 13 November 1787)

- Ask Ks 3 from each household toward war funds (ROB 28 August 1785)

- Local chiefs were given the task of sending a certain number of recruits to the fighting forces; punish those who failed to meet the demands (ROB 25 August 1787, 1 September 1787, 9 September 1787, 24 October 1787, 4 November 1787, 5 November 1787 & 8 November 1787)

- Impose a fine of Ks 150 on each person who evaded military service; as per list drawn by Nands Mait Kyawzwa, Tat Sayay - Regimental Clerk (ROB 14 November 1787)

- While a husband or a son is away in combat service, his wife or mother could not be ejected from a land even though the land owner has every right to do so; he shall have to wait until the war is over (ROB 14 November 1787)

- Use messengers riding on horses to report headquarters thes progress of the fighting forces marching to Chiengmai (ROB 22 December 1787)

What I think the most striking achievement, although it had not a lasting success, made by King Badon was his calendar reform. By the lunar calendar that the Burmese are accustomed to use, there are in each year 354 days 8 hours 48 minutes and 34 seconds but by the solar calendar it is

(by the Burmese method of calculation) 365 days 6 hours 12 minutes and 31 seconds.* There is a shortage of 10 days 6 hours 12 minutes and 31 seconds. To make up this shortage, one intercalary month and an occasional intercalary day (as in the Jewish calendar) is added after very third year. Burmese are quite happy with this arrangement until now. But King Badon wanted to make a complete change. He adopted the solar calendar. So 1 January 1807 was 1 Tabodwe in the twentysixth year of his reign. Using the dates used by King Badon in his Orders beginning from the twentysixth until thirtyseventh year of his reign when he died, I tried to reconstruct his Pon Daw Pyet Ga Dain-King's Own Calendar, with the help of late U Tikkhadhammalankara, Pozadaw Taik, Henzada and late Dr Yi Yi (14 March 1829 - 15 November 1984), Burma History Commission, Rangoon. Now I take this opportunity to publish the Pon Daw Pyet Ga Dain here. If Dr Yi Yi were living, she might object my publishing it because there are some points in it which we could not explain. King Badon used a nineteen year cycle and he counted the days running consecutively from 1 to 990 and day 961 would be day 1 0f the intercalary month. But when we worked out his calendar it is not as simple as this. We did not know the answer. The following list shows what I mean to say.

2 December	1807	Day	961	Tabodw	I
1 January	1807	Day	1	Tabodwe	II
18 August	1810	Day	961	Thadingyut	I
17 September	1810	Day	1	Thadingyut	II
4 May	1813	Day	961	Wazo	I
3 June	1813	Day	1	Wazo	II
4 January	1816	Day	946	Tabodwe	I Day 1 of the Waning Moon **
19 January	1816	Day	961	Tabodwe	II Day 1 of the Waning Moon
20 October	1818	Day	976	Nadaw	II (Nadaw I missing)

King Badon must have been contemplating to change over to the solar

* Astronomical (Solar) Year is the period between two passages of the sun through the same equinox, equal to about 365 days 5 hours 48 minutes and 46 seconds whereas Sidereal Year is the period of 365 days 6 hours 9 minutes and 9 seconds in which the sun returns to the same position among the stars.

 It is from here that Pon Daw Pyet Ga Dain because somewhat impossible.

calendar together with the system of calling the year with the number of his regnal year, from about 1801. The King's Orders with reference to this idea of change are as follows:

- Withdraw permission to use Old Calendar (ROB 10 May 1801)
- Crown Prince and two ministers study 'Day Date Nomenclature' (ROB 15 May 1801)
- Since no agreement could be reached on 'Day Date Nomenclature', continue the use of Old Calendar (ROB 17 May 1801)
- Hko Nan Monk, Saing Pyin Monk and those learned in calendar making shall decide how many days there are in each years (ROB 19 May 1801)
- According to Old Calendar, 29 Tagu as well as 29 Nayun are 'no moon days'; it is difficult to ignore this; suggestions made by senior monks are not acceptable (ROB 22 May 1801)
- The problem seems to be the determination of the day to begin the Buddhist Lent in each year (ROB 24 May 1801)
- Correlate Pon Daw Pyet Ga Dain with an astrological work brought from India called Rajamattan and find out how sun and moon move in the space; make note how Pon Daw and Old Calendar differ in this respect (ROB 28 May 1801)
- Majority of monks are still ignorant of Pon Daw ; perhaps Guardian of the Religion might give them a course on its workings; if that is not possible, it is expedient to allow the observation of sabbaths by Old Calendar (ROB 29 May 1801)
- Come to Min Gun where the King is temporaily residing, to observe Sabbaths by the Pon Daw (ROB 30 May 1801)
- Ex-monk Nyaung Bin Kyaung Saya and other calendar experts shall submit a treatise on calendar (ROB 2 June 1801)
- Send back monks from Min Gun to their own places if they want to start the Buddhist Lent by the Old Calendar (ROB 5 June 1801)

- Tagu shall always fall on Missa - First Thirty Days of the Year, and determine how many days there are in each year (ROB 10 June 1801)

- Thadun Monk and his disciples shall submit Tha Gyan Za - Account on New Year, together with its calendar (ROB 12 June 1801)

- Monks shall say openly whether they are in favour of Pon Daw Pyet Ga Dain or not (ROB 14 June 1801)

- Find out whether it is suitable to begin the Buddhist Lent at the time of summer solstice (22 June) or at the time of winter solstice (22 December) (ROB 17 June 1801)

THE ROYAL ORDERS OF BURMA, AD 1598-1885; PART IV, AD 1782-1787

SUMMARY

11 February 1782

(Ex-King) Singu (10 June 1776 - 5 February 1782) and Nga Maung (former Lord of Hpaung Ga who made himself king for nearly a weel: 5 February 1782- 10 February 1782) were unable to maintain law and order in the kingdom. People had to leave their homes to hide for safety. Having compassion on these people, Prince Badon has to assume kingship.

Order: (1) Watch the homes of the followers of (Ex-king) Singu and (former Lord of Hpaung Ga) Nga Maung.

(2) Check every house (in the city) and capture all bad men who took advantage of the recent disturbances to loot.

(3) Assign 50 to 60 men on special guard duty in every two or three wards to restore peace in the city immediately.

This Order was passed on 11 February 1782 and proclaimed by Nagan Daw Pyo Gyi Hmu - Liaison Officer - cum - Chief of Black Beret Guards (on the very day when King Badon ascended the throne).

Note : See ROB 16 May 1758 where ten Nagans were appointed with Dama Min Ye as Chief of Nagans, who was also assigned to write a manual of Nagans "who receive orders from a higher authority to be transmitted to people concerned" and it would be more appropriate to call Nagan Liaison Officer and Than Daw Sint Herald whereas Than Daw Gan is officer to receive vassal lords visiting the city to attend the annual Kowtow.

11 February 1782

Order: (1) Send land and water forces against Ex-King Singu and his men under Nga Toke Gyi and Nga Tun, on 12 February 1782 at the auspicious time prescribed by the astrologers.

(2) Let the troops go northwest at the beginning of the march.

(3) No one of them shall be allowed to drink liquor, etc., to bully his fellows and to eat beef.

(4) Punish severely, irrespective of his rank and status, anyone who disobeys this order.

This Order was passed on 11 February 1782 and proclaimed by Liaison officer-cum-Chief of Black Beret Guards.

12 February 1782

Ex-King Singu and Nga Maung had failed their duties to keep law and order in the kingdom. People were in much distress and with compassion on them, Prince Badon has assumed the kingship.

Order : (1) Send messengers in haste to all provincial chiefs in Shan and Myay Lat (Cis)Salween between Burma and Shan) areas announcing the new reign.

(2) Send massengers to all important centres along the Irrawaddy and Chindwin valleys announcing the new reign.

(3) Choose the messengers carefully so that each of them would be able to carry out their assignments with intelligence and efficiency.

This Order was passed on 12 February 1782 and proclaimed by Liaison Officer-cum-Chief of Black Beret Guards.

12 February 1782

Ex-King Singu tries to escape into China. Min Ye Yan Naing (chief of Yu Daw Mu Horse) and Thamanta Ye Ba Nya U (Chief of Nauk Win) had sent their men to report this. They also promised to seize the Ex-King.

Order: (1) Min Ye Yan Naing and Thamanta Ye Ba Nya U shall return to the city to take the oath of allegiance before they go to intercept the Ex-King's escape into China.

(2) Administer the oath allegiance to the men sent here by Min Ye Yan Naing and assign them any suitable duty here.

(3) Tuyin Mye Myan and his 70 men shall guard the sector north of Hluttaw.

(4) The following officers said that they would join the chase and capture the Ex-King.

Amyauk Wun - Officer of Cannons
Anauk Win Hmu - Officer of West Palace Guards, Nanda Kyaw
Anauk Wun - Officer of West Palace, Maha Pa Kyan
Kin Wun - Officer of Tolls
Mibaya Wun - Chief Queen's Minister
Min Ye Min Hla Kyaw Thu
Myo Lat Wun - Officer of Towns without Myo Wuns of their own Thado Thiha Thu and Yun Zu Wun - Officer of Yun (Shan) Groups.

They shall present themselves here first and take the oath of allegiance. If they refuse to come here before doing anything else, arrest them and seize their property.

This Order was passed on 12 February 1782.

13 February 1782

Order: (1) Men who went with the former king to Anya (Thihadaw) shall stay in their homes without fear of any molestation to their lives and properties.

(2) Now that Ex-King Singu had been captured by Thado Thiha Thu, Myo Lat Wun and their men at Sanpanago, let this news be declared by the beat of gongs throughout the city.

This Order was passed on 13 February 1782 and proclaimed by Liaison Officer-cum-Chief of Black Beret Guards.

14 February 1782

Thado Thiha Thu, Myo Lat Wun, Kin Wun, Yun Zu Wun, Anauk Win Hmu Nanda Kyaw and Than Ba Na Ye had captured Ex-King Singu, wives and children, and had brought the captives on Aung Ban boat. Nga Tun, Nga Toke Gyi and

Nga Kyin escaped. Amyauk Wun was sent after them. They had done a great service to the present monarch though they still have to take the oath of allegiance to the new king. Nothing was amiss. When Ava fell, Alaungmintaya established a new kingdom. After him, his eldest son became king. Then the second son was made king after the demise of the eldest brother. The second son was succeeded by Prince Singu as king. Unfortunately he lacked all the ten virtues of a king. Consequently he could not remain long as a king. The succession would naturally devolve on the third son of Alaungmintaya, who is the present Lord. Nga Maung, however, usurped the throne. Disturbances continued and the responsibility to restore peace and tranquility in the kingdom fell upon Prince Badon. Ex-King Singu was captured by Thado Thiha Thu, Myo Lat Wun, Kin Wun and the group of those officers of the former reign.

Order: (1) Officers shall devote all their efforts on reconstruction of things damaged during the recent disturbances.

(2) Bring Ex-King Singu and family to the city.

(3) Give Zawta Theinga and Yanta Mate Sithu all the men and boats that they would require for a campaign.

This Order was given on (14 February 1782).

Note: Ex-King Singu was drowned on 14 February 1782. (Kon I 1967, P. 531)

18 February 1782

Order: (1) Send messengers to all provincial centres in the kingdom to announce the beginning of a new reign.

(2) Administer the oath of allegiance to the provincial chiefs either by sending special officers to do it at their own localities or by summoning them to come to the capital to take it.

This Order was given on 18 February 1782 and proclaimed by Naymyo Nandathu

Liaison Officer-cum-Chief of Black Beret Guards.

20 February 1782

Order: (1) There shall be no naking, selling and consumption of any kind of intoxicant drink or inhaling a stimulent drug in the entire kingdom.

(2) There shall be no big game hunting in the entire kingdom.

(3) There shall be no gambling of any kind in the entire kingdom.

(4) Resume the time announcements by the beating of drums from the usual places where special drums for this purpose are kept.

(5) Check all weight, capacity and length measures and fix a seal to every one of these things or instruments used in measuring to verify that it agrees with the standards.

This Order was passed on 20 February 1782 and proclaimed by Liaison Officer-cum-Chief of Black Beret Guards.

22 February 1782

Order: (1) Execute the men who were of the top rank among the followers of Ex-King Singu and Nge Maung and confiscate their property.

(2) Give amnesty to others who had no choice but to obey orders during the recent episodes.

(3) There is a custom that some crimes would be connived with the change of a reign. Respect this custom.

(4) There are people who asked someone else to keep some of their property for fear of confiscation as they are somehow or other related to persons who had participated in the cause of Ex-King Singu and Nga Maung; officers shall help them to get back their own things without any difficulty.

This Order was passed on 22 February 1782.

24 February 1782

Order: (1) The Order of 22 February 1782 is meant to stop property confiscations; in spite of that Nga Aung Myin and Nga Lun Baw took the property of some foreigners; punish those who disobeyed the Order by declaring their misdemeanour by a beat of gong at nine gates of the city.

(2) When another similar offence occured, both the man who committed the crime as well as his immediate superior would be punished.

This Order was passed on 24 February 1782 and proclaimed by Liaison officer-cum-Chief of Black Beret Guards.

25 February 1782

Order: (1) The office of a local chief is always hereditary and the palace archives have the genealogical list of these chiefs; nevertheless some rightful people were ousted from their positions during the time of last King; Hluttaw shall check and correct these discrepencies.

(2) Elephants are grouped under these heads:

(Htu Sin = Best young bull elephants)
(Htu Sin Ma = Best young cow elephants)
(Si Zu Sin Ma = Selected cow elephants for short trips)
Si Daw Gyi = Selected bull elephants for members of the royal family for short trips
Yway Sin = Selected elephant fighters
Win Sin = Elephants of North Palace Guards
(Htan Sin = Elephant carriers)
(Wun Yi Sin = Elephants reserved for ministers)
Danet Pala Sin = Elephants for taming wild elephants
Aukma Sin = Elephants for capturing wild elephants
(Kyin Sin = elephants used in funeral processions)
(Meinthit Sin = Elephants of poor quality either young or old)

(Names in parenthesis are not given in this Order)

and separate plots of land at various suitable places had been allotted to each group so that elephants could have ample grazing ground while men tending them could build homesteads and cultivate;

nevertheless these "elephant lands" had been alienated during the time of last King; put them right again and withdraw all written orders that broke the good old situation.

(3) Dues exacted at

Seik (port)
Ti (seasonal trade fair and/or permanent market)
Pwe (trade deport or brokerage)
Kin (told station) and Gado (ferry)

are reported to have been raised too high recently; reduce them to their customary rates as they had been collected formerly in the times of

King Saturday (Dabayin Min 1698-1714)
King Sunday (Mhannan Shin 1714-1733) and King Thursday (Mahadhammarajadhipati 1733-1752)

and leave the usual shares from dues collected from certain places for religious establishments as before.

(4) There had been promotions and demotions without any good cause during the last reign and insignias of rank and office were also not properly used; restore every officer or man tos his former position, title and insignia that he was given at the time of Maha U Gintha - the Great Opening Day of the Throne Room, at the beginning of King Myedu's reign in 1763; ifs there is any raise to be made to an officer's rank or any correction in his insignia, it shall be done at the time of the Great Opening Day of the Throne Room of the present reigning lord.

(Maha U Gintha day held by King Myedu was on 16 May 1764 and King Badon had it on 23 May 1783; and declaring that he wanted "the right man in the right place" King Myedu made a shuffle of official positions on 15 September 1764. See Kon I 1967, pp.353, 357 & 552)

(5) Kyaung Athi - Men of Monasteries, and Hpaya Athi- Men of Pagodas, who were once dedicated as servants of the religion by ancient rulers and their descendants shall remain servants of the religion even though the religious establishment to which they were originally attached are now in ruin; it is not unlikely that some of their descendants are now in the King's service; trace them; allow no one of influence protect them; return them to their position of being servants of the religion attached to any religious establishment where their services might be useful.

(6) State affairs are many and varied; for the time being, ministers shall give top priority in restoring peace as there had been much trouble recently.

This Order was passed on 25 February 1782 and proclaimed by Liaison Officer-cum-Chief of Black Beret Guards.

28 February 1782

Order : (1) The way ministers had administered the oath of allegiance to provincial chiefs is approved.

(2) Ministers shall continue various executive works with an equal enthusiasm and efficiency.

This Order was passed on 28 February 1782 and proclaimed by Liaison Officer-cum-Chief of Black Beret Guards.

3 March 1782

Order: (1) In settling debts, the principle of Mu Hso Ma Wun - a widow's way in tackling a hard work, shall be allowed.

(2) Observe also another principle of Pin Yin Det Akhet Ma Pwa - branches of a tree shall never outdo its truk, i.e. total amount of interest on a loan of money shall never exceed the amount of loan itself.

(3) In cases of adultery, assault, dispute of land, slender, theft, etc. a judge should be quick in his perceptions to differentiate taya - civl case, from yazawut -criminal case, so that he could decide whether he should apply either Yazathat or Damathat or both to decide a particular case.

(4) Some people who should not become a judge at all, had been made a judge in the time of formers king; check the appointment of judges.

(5) Use the principle Kye Thi Saga Nge Aung, Nge Thi Saga Pa Byauk Aung - minimise the outrageous statement and mitigate the negligeble one. (Variation : Kye Thi Amhu Go Nge Aung, Nge Thi Ahmu Go Pa Byauk Aung - minimise the big offence and mitigate the small one.)

(6) Fix the court fees, as well as the fee for getting evidences before the judge.

(7) Fix the fees to be given to pleaders.

(8) When there were no eye withnesses nor any form of written statement in support of a claim, prescribe Kaba Lay Yat - four kinds of trial by ordeal, and fix the various fees on each form of ordeal.

(9) Fix the fees for copying the judgement, writing an appeal, etc.

(10) Devolution of the office of local chiefs shall be determined only after having referred to the old records on genealogical lists made in the reign of King Myedu.

(11) If there were any difference with genealogical list made during the time of Alaungmintaya and that of King Myedu, the later one should be used, because the first one was made at a time when conditions were not well established.

(12) When a man and his wife have no children, the wife shall inherit the man or the husband shall interit the woman and after the decease of both of them, their property goes to their parents and grandparents; when there are no parents or grandparents living, the property is escheated to the crown.

This Order was passed on 3 March 1782 and proclaimed by Pyanchi Thiri, Liaison Officer.

Note : This Order together with ROB 14 August 1783, 18 August 1783, 29 August 1783 and 7 January 1784 give us some idea of how the new king wanted the administration of justice should be carried out in his kingdom.

10 March 1782

Monks called Kyeik Ban Daing, Thawutthi, Sipa and Htandabin are not living like real monks.

Order: (1) Kyeik Ban Daing shall change to wearing only white robes and he shall be exiled to Gangaw and Talaw.

(2) Send Thawutthi, Sipa and Htandabin, each to one of the four (big) forests.

This order was passed on March 1782 and proclaimed by a Senior Wundauk-Assistant Minister.

15 April 1782

Note: Except for the date , this Order is the same with that of 20 April 1770.

3 June 1782

After the Buddha's death, attempts were made by monks and kings to keep the Buddha's Religion in its most pure and original form. Consequently there were the First, Second and Third Buddhist Synods. In Burma, from about the time of King Saturday (Dabayin Min 1698-1714), grandfather of King who was taken to Hanthawaddy (Mahadhammarajadhipati 1733-1752), there was a difference of opinion among monks that a monk should cover with robe only his left shoulder or both shoulders on entering a village and attempts to reconcile both factions has failed repeatedly. King Alaungmintaya decided in favour of 'left Shoulder' and this decision was confirmed in the times of King Dabayin and King Myedu. Then in the time of king Singu, the debate on the problem was resumed and 'Left Shoulder' group was defeated. Nevertheless, Lord of Hpaung Ga seemed to have given an order in favour of 'Left Shoulder'. Shwe Daik Wun and Kyi Wun were sent to leaders of former 'Left Shoulder' group like Shwe Zedi Shin Asabha, Shwe Myin Mi Shin Saddhamaramsi, Lay Dut Myauk Taik Shin Janinda, Kyaw Htin Thinkhaya Kyuang Shin Cakkarama, etc. to find out whether this supposition is true or not. The monks said that it was not Lord Hpaung Ga but themselves who resumed 'Left Shoulder' practice because it was done like that by their teachers' teachers several generations ago. When asked to choose old practice or correct practice, they are wise enough to take the correct one. On 3 June 1782 when Yadana Shwe Bon Kyaung Nanavilasasaddhammamaharajadhirajaguru was given charge of the Religion, the crux of the problem is to keep all monks in one single group.

Order: Nanavilasasaddhammamaharajadhirajaguru together with Mingala Shwe Bon Sayadaw, Maha Mingala Shwe Bon Sayadaw and Bon Gyaw Wayyan Sayadaw shall see to the fact that all monks in the kingdom shall follow the 'Correct Practice' in all religious affairs.

This Order was sent in ceremony to Man Aung Yadana Thudama Zayat on 3 June 1782 and Pyi Lon Ant Hmu Nanda Waytha made obeisance to the monks three times and presented it to Yadana Shwe Bon Sayadaw (the monk who was appointed Religious Preceptor).

16 November 1782

Wun Gyi -Minister, Wun Dauk-Assistant Minister, Myo Wun- Officer of Town, Htaung Hmu-Chief of One Thousand, and Myo Sayay-Town Constable, are entrusted with their own administrative duties. They are not only to suppress crime but also to prevent it. There were reports that cattle were killed and beef was sold in the suburban areas of the city. Chicken and pork were sold in markets. Officers made no serious attempt to suppress such offences including theft.

Order: Negligence of duty would not be tolerated.

This Order was passed on 16 November 1782 and proclaimed by Liaison Officer-cum-Chief of Black Beret Guards.

Note: ROB 20 February 1782 says that there shall be no big game hunting and this seems to include butchering domestic animals as well.

21 December 1782

Having a new Golden Palace built together with walls, turrets, moats, etc. on a permanent basis would require a considerable work force and cause a great deal of expenses. In order to have it done most efficiently and without incurring undue expenses, several groups of workers, each under a local chief assisted by a clerks are organized and each group is given an almost similar assignment.

Order: (1) Prescribe standard rates and wages for making each portion of the wall or moat.

(2) Prescribe the style or size or quality of each part of construction.

(3) Prescribe the price of material to be used in construction.

This Order was passed on 21 December 1782 and proclaimed by Liaison Officer-cum-Chief of Black Beret Guards.

26 December 1782

Orchids are not supposed to be used by general public before they have been presented to the royalty in each year.

Order: (1) Put under custody those who distributed orchids before having them sent to palace and those who had the audacity to use them before the royalty.

(2) Impose a fine on the suppliers of orchids and get new supplies from them.

This Order was given on 26 December 1782 and proclaimed by Pyanchi Thiri, Liaison Officer.

26 December 1782

Order: (1) Release those people held in custody for the 'orchid offence'.

(2) Orchids shall never be given to general public before the royalty.

This Order was passed on 26 December 1782 and proclaimed by Pyanchi Thiri, Liaison Officer.

29 December 1782

It was reported that reckless horse riders galloped away both along crowded main roads as well as in narrow lanes so that one novice was overrun by a horse on the north of the palace and a woman fell after collision with a horse at a place near Win Ma Na city gate. An Order had already been passed forbidding a reckless riding of horse but it seems that the city office fails to give serious notice to that Order.

Order: (1) By a declaration with the beat of gong, forbid reckless riding of horse.
(2) When found a reckless rider, people around shall seize the rider even though he be of the royal family and hand him over to the City Office.
(3) Warn the City Officer to observe this Order very strictly.

24 March 1783

Land had been dedicated to various religious establishments by kings of the olden times. From some land so dedicated, the agricultural produce was for the religious establishment but from others, it was the tax of the land that was meant for the religion. The dedications were usually recorded by inscriptions on stones. Sometimes the records would be lost. Sometimes the establishment would be in ruins. In any case, it becomes increasingly difficult to know how much of the religious land has passed unwittingly as king's land.

Order: (1) All local chiefs shall report the extent of religious land in the areas under their charge with the help of people who would know their existence through some kind of dealing with these lands from several generations before them.

(2) Collect the dues or taxes from such lands and give them to Mahadan Wun-Religious Affairs Officer, to keep them safe for use on religion only.

This Order was passed on 24 March 1783 and proclaimed by Pyanchi Thiri, Liaison Officer.s

1 July 1783

Order: (1) Make a new list of men serving the princes and princesses.

(2) Each Prince or princess has been given men to serve him or her by a Royal Order and for every new name added to the original list, the names of the chief and group or area from which he or she was transferred should be entered against his or her name.

This Order was passed on 1 July 1783 and proclaimed by Liaison Officer-cum-Chief of Black Beret Guards.

3 July 1783

In Pagan times, standard spelling was given in Akkharapadesa. In Pinya period the same work was used as a guide to spelling though Caturangabala made the decision whenever there was a problem. In the First Ava period of Thayet dynasty and Second Ava of Nyaungyan dynasty, that work together with a verse on spellings were recommended for spelling.The verse begins with a pharse Sabbannanam and as such it comes to be known as Sabbannanan. We are told that King Thalun (1633-1648) took great interest in spelling. In case of doubt Nanda Yawda made the decision. For Shan words, Zayya Nawyatha was the authority. When it came to the time of King Mahadhammarajadhipati (1733-1752) another spelling book called Vannabodhana Sat 'An:

was introduced. But minister Padaytha Yaza had to say the last word.

Order: (1) Now on spelling follow Vannabodhana Sat 'An: , Sat Pum by Nga O and Sat Nhwan: by Twin Thin and on spelling of loan words from Nagari, Thathanabyu Sayadaws shall have the final say.

(2) On translation of works imported from Majjhimadesa and Banga, which is now in progress, this same Order is also applicable.

(3) Let this Order be proclaimed also in the remote places of the kingdom.

This Order was passed on 3 July 1783 and proclaimed by Thiri Mait Kyaw Htin, Liaison Officer-cum-Chief of Black Beret Guards. It was passed again on 31 May 1817 and proclaimed by Zayya Theingathy, Liaison Officer-cum-Chief of Black Beret Guards .

Note: Saw Hla Wun inscription (AD 1192), Tatkalay pagoda, Minnanthu, Pagan (Pl. 12; Shay Haung Myanma Kyauk Sa, I, Sakkaraj 474-600, Rangoon, Archaeological Survey, 1972, p.55) gives us the script, spelling and style of old Burmese (Than Tun: History of Buddhism, AD 1000-1300, JBRS, LXI, December 1978, p. 189).

It seems that Vannabodhana Sat 'An:, Kavilakkhana Sat Pum and Twan: San: Sat Nhwan: are still considered as useful references on Burmese spelling.

4 July 1783

The obeisance is usually held in the Myay Nan- Earth Palace, at the Beginning of the Buddhist Lent each year. Since the hall is still under repair, it is not available for ceremonies.

Order: Hold the Obeisance Ceremony elsewhere.

This Order was passed on 4 July 1783 and proclaimed by Nanda Mait Sithu, Liaison Officer.

5 July 1783

Order: Use some coloured rice and popcorn as tributes at the Obeisance Ceremony at the beginning of the Buddhist Lent held at Shay Yon-East Court, and Nauk Yon- West Court, of the Palace.

This Order was given on 14 July 1783 and proclaimed by Thiri Nanda Sithu, Liaison Officer.

15 July 1783

The Zawti Sect was suppressed in the reign of King Myedu (1763-1776).

Order: Whenever remnants of the Zawti were found and if they declare that they have now abandoned that faith, let them not suffer any punishment.

This Order was passed on 15 July 1783 and prosclaimed by Thiri Nanda Sithu, Liaison Offocer.

Note: In this Order a former Zawti man has only to declare that he has abandoned his faith and he goes free. ROB 17 July 1783 that follows says that it is not enough. He should be sent to the capital. In ROB 8 September 1783, we find that men sent from Hluttaw to seize Zawti men in Sinbyugyun were punished because they allowed them to escape by taking bribes.

17 July 1783

Order: (1) When a follower of Zawti sect is found, send him to the capital.

(2) If the checking is not done properly now and if and when a remnant of that sect is found later, whoever responsible to do the checking now shall also be punished.

Order: Nga Poke, son of Min Nge Kyaw, is appointed Saw Put O Myin Hmu-Leader of Saw Put O Horses.

This Order was passed on (16 December 1783) and proclaimed by Thiri Zayya Nawyatha, Liaison Officer.

24 December 1783

Order: (1) This lists of commonfolks and service men were usually kept in good order in the Palace Archives but

(a) the lists were lost and

(b) it was impossible to keep men confined to their own groups as they were called upon to join various military expeditions since the time of Alaungmintaya; now it is high time that things should be restored to their proper order; get the service groups checked so that each man would be in his own unit.

(2) Under Alaungmintaya, some men of lower origin would rise very quickly to high positions through field service and some deserving men would be left unrewarded. Under King Myedu (1763-1776) and recently in the present reign, selections were made to form Thway Thauk Su- Infantry, and Myin Zu-Cavalry. Yet there would be some omissions. Get these deserving but neglected persons and admit them into suitable groups of fighting forces or get them enlisted in any unit of their ancestors. This includes men in high positions who have had no service in a fighting unit. They shall also join one or the other of the fighting forces. Submit the new list of Thway Thauk Su-Groups of Thway Thauk (a band of fifty men).

(3) In Some villages, the line of hereditary chief was broken. An ordinary villager who would have some ability of leadership was made a chief and the new line so created shall be confirmed if it had lasted either ten years or if there were already three generations of chiefs in the same line provided the family is originally not of some religious or menial service. Consult Damathat, Yazathat, Hpyat Htone and find a solution as to what should be done to a chief of new line that has not reached the third generation as successive chiefs or completed the period of ten years as chief in that particular place.

(4) In a case of dispute between several branches of a ruling family for succession to chieftainship, recognize only the most senior branch to rule.

(5) When a leader of a group of horsemen died with no son or brother to succeed him, let all the members of the groups select one among them for leadership. If there is a new line of chiefs, confirm that line if it has reached a period of ten years or if it had passed up to the third generation provided it is not a family of religious servants or menial labourers originally.

(6) When there are more than one hundred horsemen in a group, keep the extras in a reserve group.

(7) Disputes of succession to leadership that had once been decided in the reign of King Myedu (1763-1776) and in this reign too, shall not be revised.

(8) Division of children from intergroup marriages (except in a marriage where the man or woman is of either religious service or menial service) according to the general principle of "boys go with father and girls stay with mother" holds good, until this time of "list collection". Any other way of division, if necessary, shall be announced later.

This Order was passed on 25 December 1783 and proclaimed by Nanda Mait Sithu, Liaison Officer.
Note: Other general instructions on administration are given in ROB 17 November 1783, 27 November 1783 and 7 December 1783.

This Order was passed on 6 March 1784 and proclaimed by Nanda Mait Sithu, Liaison Officer.

Note: See ROB 16 October 1783.

10 March 1784

Order: (1) Draw magic squares on the city wall, at the city gate and on the turrets together with verses from the scriptures (in order to make the city invulnerable to enemy attacks, both men and spirits.

(2) Get full instructions from the men wise in these things before they are carried out.

This Order was before on 10 March at the time of morning.

audience and proclaimed by Nanda Mait Sithu, Liaison Officer.

12 March 1784

The Vinaya-Discipline, is the most important work which every monk should know well. When the Council of Monks assembled at the Pitaka Taik Taw was asked as to how many of the monks are well versed in the Vinaya and how well they could live according to it, the answer was that there were many who did not know much about the Vinaya and who would not care much about living according to it.

Order: (1) Elders of the Council of Monks at the Pitaka Taik Taw shall conduct an oral examination on the Vinaya for every monk.

(2) Mahadan Wun-Religious Affairs Officer, shall submit the list of those who failed in the examination; he shall include in his report, who were the teachers of those monks who failed in the examination and who were the people supporting those monks.

(3) A course in the Vinaya shall be given in the Pitaka Taik Taw and those who failed in the examination must attend it; if they failed the examination again, they shall have to leave the monkhood.

(4) A course of training shall be given by the Pitaka Taik Taw Council to monks who will be sent to remote places in the kingdom to propagate the Buddha's Religion and provincial towns shall send some selected monks to this course with expences provided by the chief of province from which the trainees are sent.

This Order was passed in the evening on 12 March 1784 and proclaimed by Thiri Nanda Mait Sithu.

14 March 1784

Order: (1) Fast and reckless riders of horse in the streets of the city shall be punished; an Order to this effect had been issued in Ava before the move of the royal residence from there and similar orders were issued repeatedly at Amarapura; in spite of that it was reported that a monk was seriously injured because of a collision with a galloping horse in the main street running east to west on the north of the palace.

(2) Put Htaung Hmu-Chief of One Thousand, and Htaung Sayay-Clerk of Chief of One Thousand, under custody and ask them to name the rider of that horse that caused an injury to the monk.

(3) The rider shall be neaten while he is led along the streets in the city and outside the city, once in a day for three days; a town crier with a gong should explain why he is so punished.

This Outside was given in the evening on 14 March 1784 and proclaimed by Liaison Officer-cum-Chief of Black Beret Guards.

31 March 1784

Ponna-Brahmins, are grouped as (1) Shit Pa Ponna-Eight Brahmins, (2) Koe Ba Ponna-Nine Brahmins, and (3) Kyee Ponna-Mainland Brahmin, and Maharajindarajaguru, Chief of English Brahmins, was asked the definition of these group names. he said:

King Damazedi (Ramadhipati 1462-1487) asked Brahmins who would lead the ceremonies, from Sri Lanka and the Sri Lankan King sent

1 Dakkhinatha	2 Lokanatha
3 Mahanatha	4 Naranatha
5 Jalanatha	6 Nandanatha and
7 Sirinatha

To make a party of eight, a straw figure with a name Vamsanatha was added. From the time of Damazedi until now these Brahmins of the Unit of Eight do the following as the occasion arises:

1. Conduct the Coronation
2. Give Paritta Flowers to the King
3. Lead the ceremony of Taking the Citys, Occupying the Palace, etc.
4. Operate the Tha Gya Yay Zin Hkan-Shower Bath with Water flowing out of the Hands of Sakra, for the King
5. Ceremonial shampooing
6. Fetching water for ceremonies
7. Conduct the offerings to the Lord and monks at the beginning and end of Buddhist Lent
8. Consecrating things ranging from barges to cups and crowns before they are put aside for the King's use

These Brahmins were never asked to conduct the offerings to guardian spirits.

This Order was passed in the evening on 20 April 1784 and proclaimed by Nanda Mait Sithu, Liaison Officer.

21 April 1784

On 19 April 1784 Atula Sayadaw was interrogated by other Sayadaws at Pitaka Taik and his concepts on religious practices were known. It was in the reign of King Myedu (1763-1776) that Sayadaws of Kyet Thun Gin, Zayit and In Gyin had submitted a report stating definitely that as he had lived a way of life that was strange to the Religion, he should be driven out of the Buddhist monkhood. Accordingly he was to leave Ava and stay in jungle. In the time of King Singu (1776-1782), Queen Mother built a minastery for him but Sayadaws of In Gyin and Bon Gyaw (U Pon) objected. He had to continue living in the jungle. Soon after that, he had gathered quite a number of disciples again.

Order: Shin Janinda of Lay Dat North Monastery and U Pon of Bon Gyaw Monastery shall meet Atula again and ask him why he was exiled from Ava by King Myedu and Sayadaws of the Religious Examinations shall made a full report on this meeting.

Order: (1) A courtier who has the permission to occupy either a Taw-number one of five seats in the Audience Hall, or Du-number two seat, and who could wear a Salwe-thread hung from left shoulder winding around the torso from the right, shall put on a robe of velvet when he attends the Gado-Kowtow ceremony either on new year day or beginning day of Buddhist Lend or last day of the Lent.

(2) A courtier who has the permission to occupy either a Taw seat or Du seat but has no Salwe, shall put on a robe of Maing Lone (Mong Long) only when he attends the Gado ceremony.

(3) Courtiers of lower status than those mentioned above shall use the customary robes, etc.

This Order was passed on 28 May 1784 and proclaimed by Nanda Mait Sithu.

Note: A courtier's status is known by the seat he occupies in the Audience Hall (in the eastern half of the palace) on the Kowtow day held either on the new year day or at the beginning of Buddhist Lent or at its end. The King sits facing east and right in front of him is the central divide. Any one who sits on his left, i.e. on the north side, is of a higher status than his counterpart sitting on the right or south side (Tan: Rhwe Nan : Sum: Wohara Abhidhan, I 1975, p. 16). It is just the reverse when the Kowtow is held in western half of the palace (Tan: Wohara, p.153). In the east palace, the seats are arranged as follows:

Crown Prince
Senior Princes
Intermediate Princes
Junior Princes (including Myin Hmu Mintha)
Commander of the Fighting Forces
Vassals from Shan State (Sawbwa)
Seats without name (Nay Ya Loot for persona grata)
Ministers
Taw Choon (Above No. 1 seats)
Rich Man (No.1)
Taw (No.1 seats)
Du (No.2 seats)
Sanee (No.3 seats)
Atwin Ba Waw (No.4 seats)
Pyin Ba Waw (No.5 seats)
Rich Men (No.2)
Rich Men (No.3)
Officers of Shan State (Tat Paung Za)
Officers of Talaing State (Talaing Amat)
Officers of Thailand (Yodaya Amat) and Officers of Shan State (Shan Amat)

There are altogether 226 seats on the left and (minus the seat of Crown Prince) there are 225 seats on the right. That makes a total of 451 seats. In the west palace the seating arrangement (i.e. for only ladies of the court) is as follows.

Senior Princesses
Wives of Senior Ministers called Amay Daw Gan Ga Daw Gyi*
Wives of Senior Officers called Ga Daw Gyi*
Shay Thwe (No.1 seat)
Nauk Thwe (No.2 seat)
Pwe Dak (No.3 seat)
Brides sent from Vassals called Thami Kanya (No.4 seats)

*Only with a royal sanction, a woman could use Ga Daw suffixed to the offical designation of her husband's ; e.g. Pa Khan Wun Gyis's wife became Pa Khan Ga Daw Gyi by a royal sanction (Tan:Wohara, p.25).

There are 56 seats on the right and 56 more on the left (a total of 112 seats (Tan: Wohara, p.23).

3 June 1784

A coronation is held not only for the benifit of the king, but also for the benisfit of his subjects. A Salwe - ceremonial thread hung from left shoulder and wound round torso on the right, is not only a mark of distinction, but also a pledge for good either at home or in office.

Order: (1) The Crown Prince, all court dignitaries and officers shall observe strictly the pertaining to anyone who is given a Salwe.

(2) The Salwe should be worn at all times when one is in the office.

This Order was passed on 3 June 1784 in the Earth Palace and proclaimed by Thiri Nanda Sithu.

See Salwe Tin Sadan- Treatise on Threads hung from left shoulder and would around torso from the right. It is given below.

3 June 1784

On 3 June 1784, the King sent Min Gyi Nanda Kyaw Htin, Atwin Wun-Minister of the Interior, to (Maung Daung Sayadaw) for an information on Salwe- Threads hung from Left Shoulder and wound round Torso from the Right. The following threatise is submitted.

In Parajika Atthakatha, Salwe is mentioned as one of the regalia sent as a gift by Asoka to Devanapiyatissa of Lanka. The regalia consists of eigh items, viz.

1. Flywhisk
2. Forehead Band
3. Umbrella
4. Double-edged Sword
5. A Pair of Shoes
6. Turban
7. Shoulder Thread
8. Jar
9. Back Scratcher or Crow's Foot

In Apadan Atthakatha, Vakkali Thera was described as a former prince who used to have a Salwe.

In many of the non-religious Sanskrit works, one would find that the use of Yajna pavita -Shoulder Thread, is a very ancient practice. As a matter of fact, this is a symbol of caste. By having this thread on the shoulder, one would often be reminded of his duties as a member of a certain caste. When a king or a prince or a minister has this thread (made of gold) on his shoulder, he would always be aware of his official responsibilitiess on the people he rules. In this way this Salwe is not an ordinary ornament. A hermit would like to sit on a seat made of black leopard skin. Why? Because leopards are known to be very firm in keeping a certain habit and if a leopard skin is around, a hermit feels that he has been reminded to be firm in the way of ascetics. A Salwe serves the same purpose to a king or a Brahmin as a leopard skin is to a hermit. A Brahmin has nine threads on his shoulder, while a Cetra wears six, a Bisya three and a Sudra none. Followings their practice, each officer according to his rank shall have three or six or nine threads of Salwe while a minister shall have twelve, a junior prince fifteen, a senior prince eighteen, a Crown Prince twenty one and a king twenty four. A Brahmin who wears shoulder threads shall be replete with ten qualities, viz.

1. Keeping quiet or remaining calm
2. Making perpetual check on mind and body not to commit any sin
3. Suppressing sexual urge
4. Remaining pure
5. Having contentment
6. Having patience
7. Being honest
8. Being pious
9. Being kind
10 Being truthful

In another words a Bramin who is wearing shoulder threads shall keep the above mentioned ten virtues. The king, on the other hand, would have the determination that he would try to keep the exalted position and he would remain forever beyond reproach, after having worn the Salwe. As a result, he would live long and remain unconquered. He would be wise and powerful. if anyone could get the said benifits by remaining true to the way of one's caste, it goes without saying that he would get an enormous benifit by living the Buddhist way of life. When the king and all administrators who represent him become aware of their rights and responsibilities because of having worn the Salwe, there should be a great prosperity in the land they rule and that would also help the Religion to thrive there.

In Nemiya story written in verse, Sonadinna is mentioned as having a Salwe of nineteen threads. The Pali version, which is of course the original, simply states that he was resplendent in a full dress. The number of threads in the Salwe is not important whether it is nineteen or twenty four. Sinadinna is an important deva though he is not a king. A king would have a Salwe of twenty fou threads.

This treatise was copied on 28 January 1867.

Notice of Wazo Full Moon Day (1 July 1784)

You all people of this kingdom, know that the Buddhist Lent has begun. Do not kill. Do not steal. Do not commit adultery. Do not tell lies. Do not take any intoxicant drinks. If you commit these five sins, you will go to hell. If you are free from these sins and if you could do some charity plus some more restraint from doing the carnal sins, you could aspire to become king of men, king of devas and ultimately to reach Nirvana. Think about it seriously and pay homage to the Buddha, the Buddhist Religion and the Buddhist Order of Monks while you keep the promises of either five kinds or eight kinds.

17 June 1784

5 Execution of A Prince

Either a prince (brother of the King or son of the King)s or a person of rank and position is to be summoned to appear at Yon

Daw-Criminal Court, a Lak Ma Htauk is sent as messenger. If the person summoned is to be checked, a chief of Let Ma Htauk has to do it. Myo Sayay records the things he has brought. They shall keep the book of caths, a pot of lead and a bowl to measure time in readiness. When the order mentions detention, a piece of cloth (either velvet, satin or cotton) to be used together with fetters must be asked from Hluttaw. An officer of Hluttaw shall decide what kind of cloth is to be used for which person of the royal family, in order to soften the chefing of fetters on the skin. A Let Ma Yun shall wrap the cloth on the fetters before they are used.

6 Drowned in Water

When the order mentions death, apply for a net bag, a cloth bag, four big pots and (two) boats with men, in Hluttaw. After having received them, take the prisoner to the river port with an escort of one armed man from each of Tha Ye Dan - Barrack of Armed Men called Tha Ye/ Braves, Let Ya Dan - Barrack of Armed Men called Let Ya/ Marksmen, and Kaung Han Dan - Barrack of Kaung Han/ descendants of Burmese ins Chiengmai/ left there by King Hanthawaddy Sinbyushin in the third quarter of the 16th century, plus a Sayay Gyi of a Wun Dauk- Assistant Minister, of Hluttaw and Mya Wun -City Officer, with assistants like Myo Sayay - City Constable, Htaung Hmu-Chief of One Thousand, and Htaung Sachi-Clerk of Htaung Hmu, from Yon Daw. Actual execution of the order shall wait until sunset with the expectation that an order rescinding the execution would come. When no rescinder arrives at the end of the day, Let Na Yun shall bind the prisoner in cords and put him in a net bag first. Then the net bag goes into a cloth bag to which four big pots are attached, one each at a corner of the bag. Special ropes are used to tie up the pots. A check is made so that ropes are tied well. Using the two boats given by Hluttaw, the prisoner and executioners row to a place of deep water with the four pots floating in between the boats. The armed men and officers from Hluttaw and Yon Daw shall go in the boats. In the middle of the river, the two boats get separated and the prisoner is dropped into the water. The four big pots are broken by Let Ma Yun man. After the prisoner disappeared under water, the officers, etc. shall return to the bank of the river.

7 Execution of ans Ex-Officer

A former minister or a person who was once well known and important, is taken to a cemetery for execution. Hluttaw shall pass an order to Tha Ye Dan, Let Ya Dan and Kaung Han Dan to provide an escort when the prisoner is taken from the lock up to cemetery. For crucifixion, apply for wood ands nails in Hluttaw. Hluttaw shall pass an order to carpenters and blacksmiths concerned to supply them. Using material supplied, Sandala-undertakers, erect a cross on which the prisoner is crucified.

8 Burnt to Death in a Fire House

Yon Daw orders West Chief of One Thousand and his assistants to collect timber, bamboo and cane. With these, Sandalas build a Mi Laung Daik - Hlouse to hold prisoners to be burnt alive. By order of Hluttaw the amount of gunpowder to ignite the house is issued in proportion to the number of people to be burnt in that house. It would be 50 or 70 viss. In fact West Chief of One Thousand takes it from Yon Daw and gives it to Sandalas. Power and fuel are put together on the floor of Mi Laung Daik. The prisoners are taken to cemetery with a Thon Dan-Three Barracks, escort. They are tied up by Let Ma Yun executioners and shut up in Mi Laung Daik. They set fire to the powder and leave Sandalas to wait until the house is burnt. After the lapse of three days Yon Daw send officers to check the number of charred bodies and the remains are allowed to be taken away.

9 Cutting the Body with a Saw

With Hluttaw's order to have the body cut with saw, the prisoner shall be taken to (cemetery) with a Thon Dan escort. Any saw available will do the purpose of severing head from body by Let Ma Yun executioners. The severed head and body are left with Sandalas.

With Hluttaw's order to have the prisoner cut into four parts, Sandalas have to put ups a stand with wood available at cemetery. The prisoner is taken to cemetery by a Thon Dan escort and cut into four parts. A spike is put through each part and put on the stand by Sandalas. The remains should not be taken away without permission of Hluttaw.

10 Display the Head

With Hluttaw's order to display the head after execution, mades a request to Hluttaw to provide wood for a post to hang the head and for writing the name of the criminal and a carpenter to inscribe the name on the wooden plaque which is about a metre long and 16 cm wide. Both ends of the plaque are made to look like the top of a writing board. Men of Lay Myak Hna-Stockade on Four Sides of Palace, write in lime: "This is the head of so and so, a scum of society" ands the carpenter has to inscribe it on wood with his chisel. The head is hung and the plaque is nailed to the post from where the head is hung. The head could not be taken away without Hluttaw's permission.

11 Burnt in Fire by Bellows

With Hluttaw's order to use bellows in raising fire, made a request to Hluttaw to provide charcoal and bellows. The esscort of Thon Dan is also sent for as usual. In cemetery, the prisoner is tied up to a post with his feet barely touching the ground. Let Ma Yun men shall set fire using bellows. (Nga Tint De) of up stream was the only person ever known to have been executed with fire by bellows in the past.

12 Execution by Opening the Chest

With Hluttaw's order to cuts open the prisoner's chest, Let Ma Yun men shall take him to cemetery by the usual Thon Dan escort and execute him. Sandalas shall guard the remains of the executed man.

13 Declaring the Nature of Crime by beating a Gong (before Execution)

For some crimes, punishment should be made known to public with the beat of a gong. In such a case, the prisoner with usual escort shalls be led through the busy streets ofs city. Thes announcement to be made was written and given to one of the members of North Palace Guards to read it. In Ava it is to be read at the road junction on the east of Kala Dan- Foreigners Quarter. In Amarapura it is to be read at the road junction at Hman Dan-Ward of Glass Makers, and also outside A La Wi Gate. At cemetery, Let Ma Yun shall execute the prisoner and leave the head and body with Sandalas for three days. With Yon Daw's order the remains are to be disposed of after three days.

14 Open the Chest

When a prisoner has to be executed by cutting open his chest and then his dead body has to be spread eagled on a cross. Let Ma Yun have to do it. The remains are to be disposed of after three days with the permission ofs Yon Daw. Either a hanging head or remains of a crucifixion or remains of a dead prisoner spread on a stand, could only be disposed of with Hluttaw's order. Without an order, they should remain as they are until they disappeared through the lapse of time.

When a prisoner dies of an illness, the officer of the lock-up where he was detained, must report it to Myo Wun-City Officer. Myo Wun shall assign a Sandala to remove the remains. The name of Sandala who comes to take away the remains is to be written against the name of the dead prisoner in the prison register.

15 Floating on Raft the Remains of an Executed Prisoner

After execution Sandalas have to fix the head on the dead body with a spike so that the dead body could be seen in a sitting position. The whole thing should be done as it was done with the remains of Nga Kin Nge.

16 Cutting the Hand

To cut which hand or both hands is ascertained first. Then the prisoner shall be taken by the usual Thon Dan escort to cemetery. Thes cut is made at the wrist, but it should be marked with lime before the cut is actually done by a Let Ma Yun. After it has been cut, the prisoner and the severed hand are left with Sandalas.

17 Cutting the Hip and Hand

For the offence of using a set of harness meant for a superior officer and a long handled umbrella with a bearer without permission, the hip of the man who set on the saddle unauthorised and the hand of the bearer who held the unauthorised umbrella shall be cut. If the bearer escapes, the amn who had used the umbrella will lost his hand. The person or persons to be punished are taken to cemetery by the usual escort of Thon Dan. When the cuts are made, the punished ones are left with Sandalas.

18 Hanged by the Neck

When a prisoner who has been marked by tattoo for his crime and has been confined in either one of the four lock-ups, commits a crime before his term of imprisonment is over, he shall be made to confess his guilt as well as to name all the men who are his associates in the recent crimes. If Shwe Myo Daw Wun-City Officer, decides to punish him, he shall be moved to the West Lock-up without any special escort and Let Ma Yun shalls haung him there. After having reported the hanging, Yon Daw shall permit that the remains shall be disposed of or buried. Since the man had been convicted, his execution requires no sanction of Hluttaw.

19 Declaring the Nature of Crime by beating a Gong (before giving Lashes)

In all cases of declaring the nature of crime and giving the lashes, Let Ma Yuns are to carry out the order. The note is read by Myauk Atwin Wun-North Officer of Interior. The allowance given for this reading of note is divided among the people of Yon Daw and Htaung Hmu. Depending on importance of the person involved, the allowance could be either large or small and if it is small, only men of the Htaung group share it. The reading of the note is made in all four quarters of city and when it is over, the lashes are given. Then the man so punished would be handed over to his guarantor.

20 Death Penalty

Prisoner to be executed is moved to Myauk Atwin-North Inner (Lock-up), three days before execution. It has been observed that in the time of City officers Min Gyi Nay Myo Thin Gyan and Min Gyi Nay Myo Thin Khaya, the said prisoner was taken on the day of xecution from North Inner to Yon Daw. There he was detained on the north of Yon Daw until all officers of the court had left for the day. Then he would be taken away for execution.

When a prisoner has arrived for punishment from the city's immediate surrounding or from the provinces, Yon Daw has to check the case and proceed with the punished without making reference to Hluttaw. For death or cutting limbs, a request for Thon Dan escort is made before the punishment.

21 Put under a Log and leave in the Sun

With Hluttaw's order to put a prisoner under a log and leave him in the sun, a request has to be made to Hluttaw to provide the log. After all officers of Hluttaw have arrived at Hluttaw, the prisoner is taken to a place outside Yway Daw Yu Gate. Put the prisoner out in the sun lying with his head aligned toward the palace, with a log to pin him down on the ground. Guards are provided by A Na Zoe- Chief of Executioners. The prisoner is exposed to sun from the time when the officers of Hluttaw arrived in office in the morning until they leave it in the evening. It shall be repeated every day until an order is given to stop it.

22 Execution

The order to execute a prisoner is not carried out immediately if it coincides with

1 the King's birthday.
2 the sabbath day and
3 if it is too late in the evening.

The fact that the execution of an order has been delayed, has to be reported to Hluttaw.

23 Trial by Ordeal: Putting Pointing Finger into Molten Lead

Both parties in a contest shall undergo this orderal. Formerly pure lead was supplied by the chief of prostitutes. From the time that prostitution was abolished, the contestants shall have to bring their own lead. One Let Ma Htauk shall bring an iron pot to melt the lead and he would be paid a little for this service.

In cases of theft or accusation (of adultery or murder or witchcraft) both parties have to pay the court fees. Put on record precisely how much money has been collected. In order to observe the effect of putting the finger in the molten lead, the person who make the accusation shall be kept in a lock-up while the accused remains in a jail. When the burnt finger becomes septic, the person so injured is considered guilty and punished. (On the contrary, in 1801, Nga Thut Tawika already senstenced to death was set free because his injured finger did not become septic.)

Cases that have been decided by this lead ordeal generally required no revision. The trial is carried out under a shady tree on the east of Yon Daw.

24 Trial by Ordeal : Remaining submerged in Water

Both parties of the contest have to offer food, etc. with music to the guardian spirits. Each contestant's name, age, day of brith and place of residence together with the name of pleader who represent him, shall be entered in the register. The name of the attendant who has been assigned to keep watch on each participant is also noted. Each of them shall haves the case history written with a concluding prayer that he may win the contest as he is in the right. It is copied by the clerks of Yon Daw. Myo Sayay-City Constables, shall lead the people concerned through Yan Hnin Gate to the river bank where this ordeal by water usually takes place. Two bamboos to show where the two persons who are to go under water are fixed. Each bamboo has a name plate attached so that each one of them his place. There are also flowers fixed on bamboo tops as officerings to spirits. A bamboo about three meters long is kept ready near the place to dive. The contestants have to change into white skirts for diving. Office attendants shall check them so that none of them has with him any kind of magical aid secreted in his mouth ors in the hair knot or between his fingerss and toes to keep him submerged in water longer that his rival. After this checking, a book of oath is put on his head and he has to repeat after Let Ma Yun theses words: "Neither I nor anyone of my friends and relatives who come to this trial have done magic as an aid to come out well in this ordeal. If the statement I have just made is false, may I be punished with all the atrocities mentioned in this book of oath. On the other hand, if I say nothing but the truth, may I have the reward of winning this contest. " Then his statement which is written on a palm leaf is hung from his neck. A cord is tied to his waist. He then goes to his bamboo and make ready to dive. His rival is also subjected to all the checkings, etc. like himself. A bamboo is put on his shosulder to signal a synchronized dive. No joyous and boisterous music is allowed during the ordeal. There must be absolute silence. The bowl of water clock is also started to mark the time. Both contestants must remain completely submerged and if there is no full submersion, note how much or which part of the body remains above the surface of water. When both of them remain under water until the water bowl sinks (after 24 minutes when it has been put in water), pull the waist cord taut to signal them to come out of water. Mark who is in a bad shape like vomitting water, etc. It is possible that both could have an ill effect or none of them suffers anything. Or it is also possible that one could not stay under for the whole period period of 24 minutes. A full report on all these conditions are to be sent to Shwe Myo Daw Wun.

Ati Kyaw-court fee paids at the court of origin, is to be brought over to the city court. each contestant has to pay:

Kyats	1.50	to Shwe Pyi Soe- Town Officer whose function is largely ceremonial
	3.00	to Court Attendants who fix bamboo post and handle signal bamboo and waist cord
	1.50	to Let Ma Htauk who administer oaths and watch time
	2.00	to Guards
	----	to Clerk or City Constable

25 Trial by Ordeal : Chewing Rice

Chewing rice contest is carried out in front of Shwe Yin Ye pagoda on the northwest of palace in Ava and in front of Sin Gyo Shwe Gu on the northwest of palace in Amarapura. Use the best quality rice-one tical for each participant. Put rice in water for some time and wrap it up in a banana leaf to bring it to the place of trial. Check each party that there is no magic, etc. Let Ma Htauk shall administer oath. Take down the statement of each contestant. Read it three times. Tie it around the neck of the person who made it. Let Ma Htauk Yaza Thiha shall put his right finger into the mouth of one contestant while Myauk Atwin Wun-North Officer of the Interior, shall put his right pointing finger into the mouth of another contestant. Put rice into their mouths. When the order to chew is given, the officers whose fingers are in the mouths of the contestants withdraw their fingers simultaneously. When one contestant informs that he had finished chewing all rice, the attendant who put in the rice in his mouth says; "Chew again" three times. Then, in order to stop both parties from chewing further, two officers who had formerly inserted their fingers into the mouths of the contestants, have to put their fingers simultaneously into the mouths again. Let each of them take a mouthful of water to clean his mouth and spit the water into the spittoons. The reports should say whether the water is clean or dirty. Send the report to the minister concerned through Yon Daw.

26 Trial by Ordeal: Putting a Woman in Water to find out whether She is a Witch or not

Take the name, age and day of birth of the woman who is accused to be a witch. Write also the date when the ordeal is going to be carried out. At the water port, Let the woman turn her neither garment upside-down and inside-out. Let her clean the mouth and wash her feet. Anauk Atwin Wun-Offier of West Interior, shall tie up her hair in seven knots. Seven combs are used to divide her hair into seven groups. In each knot put one comb, a vulture's feather, a bone from some human skeleton, a miniature bow made of bamboo used in cremating a dead body with bow string made from threads to bind thumbs and big toes of a dead person and fourteen small arrows. After leaving her in the water, report the minister concerned through Myo Wun-City Officer, at Yon Daw whether she sinks or swims.

27 Officers coming to Hluttaw daily (though they are not its members)
The following officers are to attend Hluttaw daily:

Let Ma Yun Hmu- Chief of 'No Hesitation' Executioners; when he comes to Hluttaw, he shall have as attendants only those who have no tattoo marks (on their faces) and they shall be lefts outside the building; they are to take charge of any criminal sentenced by court for punishment; no imprisonment shall be made without a court sentence

Nagan Daw- Liaison Officer who conveys Orders of the Interior to people concerned; reports Myo Wun- City Officer, the punishments decreed by Hluttaw; receives any other duty charged by Yon Daw before attending Hluttaw in the evening session; and visits Let Ma Yun jail in the evening to alert the wardens there against any jail breaks

28 Anasoe- Executioners, and their Duty

Anasoe group shall keep ready

a pair of pincers
a big semicircular iron pot an iron spike
an iron skewer
an iron ladle and various tools to make a hole either in the neck or cheek as a sort of punishment.

They shall accompany an officer on tour bringing these implements with them. They have to take prisoners under custody before punishments are carried out.

29 Suicide or Death after being stricken by a Thunderbolt

In city, death either suicidal or thunder stricken, is reported to Shwe Myo Daw Wun- City Officer, by chief of a service group or chief of a ward where the death had occured. Yon Daw issues an order to bury the remains and Sandalas do it. They roll up the remains in a mat and carry them to cemetery for burial. In a suicide by rope, a member of Htaung group has to cut the cord used.

30 Skinning as a Punishment

Hluttaw's order to cut the skin is in fact to pass the knife's blade around the neck of the prisoner and the cut should not be deep. Drawing out a little blood is enough. Let Ma Yun shall execute this punishment in a space between Yon Daw and Taya Yon Daw.

31 Cut the Edges of Mouth

Hluttaw's order to cut the edges of mouth, shall be carried cut by a Let Ma Yuns. The prisoner is taken to cemetery by a usual Thon Dan escort. There, a Let Ma

Yun shall make a cuts of 5cm on each extreme edge of the mouth and continue it in only a skin deep line until it meets another line coming from the other side of the neck. Leave the prisoner in the hands of Sandalas.

32 Chisel a Hole in the Neck or Cheek

To make a hole in the neck or cheek as a punishment, the Anasoe-Executioner group, shall supply the necessary chisel. The place to strikes the chisel is marked by lime. Hold chisel in hand so that only the tooth is showings and strike it to draw a little blood.

33 Punishing a Ponna-Brahmin

A Ponna sentenced to death for conspiracy is taken to cemetery with Shan Thaye Kaung Han Escort. At the usual site for such an execution, he shall be put to death only with the blow of a cudgel. Hluttaw's order would be either to dispose the remains of the executed person in the river or to leave the remains as they are in the cemetery so that all who see them would be scared of committing a similar crime.

34 Jail Register

Hluttaw often wants Yon Daw to report the number of persons in jail as well as in lock-ups. In the report the prisoners should be grouped in three categories:

1 those sentenced to severe punishments,
2 those sentenced to less severe punishments and
3 those sentenced to only light punishments.

City Constables made the list and Shwe Myo Daw Wun- City Officer, shall countersign it. Then the constables submit it to Wun Dauk - Assistant Minister, in Hluttaw. A clerk clever in reading (such lists) is sent to go starting from the south around Hluttaw and read the list. Ministers say what kind of punishment should be given to each prisoner and name of punishment is written at the end column against the name of the prisoner. The most severe punishment is death and a zero sign is written to denote it. The minimum punishment is to declare the nature of crime by beating a gong in all crowded part of the city, to give 20 to 100 lashes and to hand over the person so punished to a gurantor. The clerk shall report the sentences named by ministers to the Shwe Myo Daw Wun before carrying out the punishments in usual manners.

35 Men In Subordinate Services

Shan Pike. Kaung Han and Tha Ye formed Thon Dan- Three Brigades. Everyday a representative group of them shall come to a site on the north east of Yon Daw and wait for orders. While they wait they display their swords, lances, helmets. etc. around them. Men of Anazoe group also come to join them in displaying their axes. Men of Lay Myak Hna -Stockade on Four Side of Palace, Anazoe and Let ma Yun shall come daily to a site on the north of Yon Daw and display ropes and canes that they use for punishing the prisoners. Sa Myaung- Attendants to presserve silence during ceremonies or while an officer is doing his official work, have to accompany Myo Wun and Myo Sayay. They also use small canes in driving away men sitting in place not meant for them. After Myo Wun has taken his seat in the office, no one is allowed to pass the front of Yon Daw nor to use the front room stairways of Yon Daw. They also check that no one uses blankets, curtains and slippers in Yon Daw. Men of Sa Myaung group and messengers of Hluttaw from four Thwe Thauk groups are stationed on the southeast of Yon Daw.

Messengers of Hluttaw in four groups have their places about 7.5 ft / 2.286m from south stairways of Yon Daw, while Kaung Hans have their place about 15ft / 4.572m on theeast of Yon Daw and Tha Yes on the north, i.e. on the east of Taya Yon. On the east of Tha Yes, there are Shan Pikes and on the east of Shan Pikes, there are Let Ma Yuns. Anazoes are stationed on the east of Kaung Hans. Let ma Htauks are to take their position on the west of Yon Daw. They shall have logs ready (to pin the prisoner on the ground while he is left in the sun). Shwe Pyi Soe Officer to lead Ceremonies in City, is to be present at Yon Daw at all times (i.e. day as well as night) and when Shwe Myo Daw Wun takes his night round of the city, he has to come along with a gong. The gong is carried on a ploe by two members of the Shwe Pyi Soe group. A few members of Let Ma Htauk and Htaung Hmu groups also have to accompany the City Officer in his night round.

When an officer goes his round of inspecting a certain ward in the city or even a certain village, men in the subordinate services have to go with him because there would be an occasion when have to arrest and punish bad characters who are disturbing peace in the country side. Sometimes local leaders arrest such bad characters and them to Htaung Hmus concerned who interrogate them and send in the report on their interrogations to Yon Daw. From these reports, officers shall decide either to detain a person or to let him go free. Without such a decision no one shall remain under detention.

36 Let Ma Yun vs Anazoe

Officers concerned shall investigate and decide when Let Ma Yun and Anazoe quarrel. The two quarrelling parties shall crouch on the ground when the decision is read to them. One let Ma Yun then show them a naked sword signifying that they shall perish by this sword if they have the audacity to continue the quarrel. The same procedure is taken when members of the Htaung Ana Zu quarrel.

When a member of Let Ma Yun or Htaung Ana dies, he shall be buried together with a rope 4.5ft/ 1.3716metre long, a wedge 1.5ft/ 0.4572, long and a cudgel.

On death sentence passed by Myo Wun on a member of either Let Ma Yun or Htaung Ana Zu, Hluttaw is reported on this sentence. Then the man so sentenced is taken out of the city by Alawi gate and is executed. His remains together with rope, wedge, etc. is buried after three days.

37 Sandala vs Sansdala

Sandalas are considered Athi-Common kolks, and quarrels among them are the concern of Athi Wun- Officer of Common folks. Excutions, when necessary. are carried out as in the case of a Let Ma Yun but an old robe of monk is tied to the neck of the dead body and the remains are thrown into a river after weighing them with stones.

39 Mein Ma Zo or Mein Ma Ge - Eunuchs of Harem

Anauk Wun - Officer of West Palace (exclusively for women), shall report the interrogation on a suspected Mein Ma Zo or Mein Ma Ge-Eunuch in charge of women, to Hluttaw with a request for sanctioning his execution. When the sentence of death is confirmed, the prisoner is put in iron shackles by Myo Wun - City Officer, and taken away through Alawi gate to West Prison. Let Ma Yun shall execute him and send his remains to cemetery where they are left exposed for three days.

40 Execution of Barber, brahmin. Faked Fakir, etc.

Myo Wun - City Officer, shall pass a death sentence of a bogus person who dererves such a severs punishment. He has to report it to Hluttaw and after Hluttaw's approval, the prisoner is sent with usual Thon Dan escorts for execution.

Brahmin, Barber, Eunch, Fakir, Spirit Medium, Member of Entertainment Groups and Servant of the Religion, shall never enter Hluttaw. A chief of their group shall be called upon to represent any of them when his statement is required in a trial.

The aforesaid procedures have been prescribed by four ministers, viz.

Kyan Gin Min Gyi,
Pakhan Min Gyi,
Kin Wun Min Gyi and Myo Lat Wun Min Gyi

on 29 October 1783 and put on record by a Wun Dauk- Assistant Minister, who is mentioned as Kyun Daw Yin - Slave of the King long before he is King. Wun Dauk passed this record to U Dain Thiri, Senior Clerk, who brought it to Shay Yon - East Court.

Supplement
Judges at Taya Yon-Law Court, shall have to bear in mind for always the Royal Order that

1 people who come to a law court for redress of their grievances shall not be harassed with mere trifles
2 truth shall prevail and
3 precedence shall be respected.

People who are in custody before the reorganization of groups shall be given a special consideration.

When a person is wanted at court, he shall be summoned in a civil manner. If he refuses to appear at court after the third summon, the case should be referred to Hluttaw. With Hluttaw's sanction, he shall appear at Shay Yon or Taya Yon wherever he is wanted.

The supplement is added by

1 Lord Pakhan, Minister
2 Lord Ka Naung, Officer of Common Folks and 3 Officer of Horses, and put on record by Nay Myo Sithu, Wun Dauk -Assistant Minister, who is Kyun Daw Yin. It has been brought to Shay Yon and Taya Yon by a senior clerk.

(Final text) is written under the supervision of Min Gyi Thiri Maha Zayyathu, Lord Myaung Hla, Assistant Minister.

There remains several points where the King wanted more explicit answers with reference to authorative works. He sent A Saung Mye-Palace Apartment Guards, Nga Kywin, Lord of Thet Pan and Nga Hmwe, Lord of Nyaung Ok, to the learned monks on 27 July 1785.

Question1 What is the difference between landownership of a king and landownership of a person who is in fact one of the King's subjects?

Answer 1 King owns Le Ya Mo Myay- cultivable land between sky and earth (Dighanikaya Sutpatheyyava). King allows his subjects to work in these lands. In this sense king alone owns all land an a person's ownership of a certain plot of land simply means that he has the king's permission to work in that plots.This right,in customary law, becomes inheritable and transferable, leading men to assume that this right is as good as or the same with land ownership. Nevertheless, the fact that payment of one-tenth of the yearly agricultural produce as tax to the king is in acknowledgement of king's ownership of all land in his territories (Vinay Athakatha).

Question 2 Is it correct to assume that except the king, no one else has a right to own land?

Answer 2 Answer to Q 1 is also good as an answer to this question.

Question 3 Gazin-low and narrow earth embankment to mark land border, has been changed to make an encroachment on another's land even for a hair's breadth is virtually stealing.Is the man who changes a Gazin stealing the king's property or his neighbour's property?

Answer 3 A theft case remains a theft case whether it is stealing a big man's property or a lesser man's property. Once a theft is detected, it is not important to know who owns the property for determining the degree of punishment. But in this case of land encroachment, it becomes a crime against both the king and the person to whom the king has granted permission to work on that certain plot of land.

Question 4 If the king alone owns land, no other person could give any piece of land to the Religion. Is this attitude correct?

Answer 4 When the king gives a certain portion of land to the Religion, an individual shall give the produce of the land on which he has the king's permissions to cultivate, to the Religion.

Question 5 Once a king had given a certain plot of land to a religious establishment but that establishment had long perished though there is some person working on it. Wouldn't that person be taken as the owner of the land?

Answer 5	No. As one tenth of the yearly agricultural produce is given to the King by a person for having the king's permission to use the land, so that person should pay one tenth of the yearly produce of the land to a nearest religious establishment if the one to which the land was originally given is no longer in existence.
Question 6	What should a man do if there is no one to collect the due from the land which is a former religious land where he is working now? Will he be considered as having the right to consume all the produce of the land by himself?
Answer 6	He should never ignore the fact that the dues are to be sent to a nearest religious establishment if the one to which the land originally belongs, is no longer in existence.
Question 7	In case there is no one to look after a garden which is in reality a religious property, will anyone be free to take the fruits, etc. of that garden?
Answer 7	Yes, he is free to do as he pleases.
Question 8	In some records of dedication, there are some instructions as to how much of the yearly agricultural produce of a certain land should be used for offering food to the Buddha daily and how much of it should be used in providing light at a certain religious monument, what should be done with the surplus if there were any?
Answer 8	One-tenth of the yearly agricultural produce is for the maintenance of the religious establishment and it goes without saying that after the expenses of food offerings and lighting, the remainder goes to the maintenance fund.
Question 9	After a religious establishment had ceased to exist, land which are formerly under its management should relapse into king's land. Right?
Answer 9	No. Any monastery or pagoda in the neighbourhood of the land under question, should get the yearly produce of that land, for its maintenance.

Question 10 Doesn't the religious establishment lost the land given to it by a king when that king died?

Answer 10 No. The land remains a religious land for all the remainder of Five Thousand Years of the Religion.

Question 11 A king gave a certain piece of land to a religious establishment and there is a lithic record of the dedication of the land. Neverthelease, it is possible that the act of giving was not done precisely as it has been mentioned in the scriptures. In that case, is it not correct to ascertain that the land never was a religious land?

Answer 11 When there were the three factors, viz. the property, the receiver and the real act of giving by its real owner, the transfer of ownership is perfect. If the giving was not done as prescribed the monk who was to receive it could have objected the giving at that time.

Note: The above questions and answers are published in Amay Daw Hpyay 1961, pp. 122-8.

21 August 1785

A king always observes (1) four qualities of Sangaha, (2) seven features of Aparihaniya and (3) ten or twelve features of rajadhamma. A minister has to follow eight ways of an administrative officer. That would bring peace and prosperity in all four quarters of the city. Since the accession of the present monarch, it was ordered that

(1) ministers shall carry out their official duties without any remiss;
(2) expense accounts on all public works are to be submitted for the king's perusal, once in every six months; and
(3) all charges or fees collected in Hluttaw, Yon Daw, etc. shall conform strictly with custom.

Nevertheless, the King observed that there had been negligence of duty and disregard of customary practices in many aspects of administration. Tax collection had been excessive or oppressive. Wun Dauk- Assistant Ministers, are expected to help the ministers by bringing to their notice anything that they might have forgotten to do. They also had failed their duty. For that they deserve death. But it is the time of war with Thailand and it is also the time of Buddhist Lent and for these two reasons they are pardoned.

Order: (1) Submit expense accounts after every six months.

(2) No one other than the four senior clerks shall write Sa Gyun- Order on Palm Leaf with one end tapering to a point.

(3) All officers employed in judiciary shall listen to a reading monthly of the Royal Order of 3 March 1782 and everything that they do shall agree with those orders strictly.

(4) Expect no clemency after having disobeyed the orders.

This Order was passed on 21 August 1785 and proclaimed by Liaison Officer-cum-Chief of Black Beret Guards.

22 August 1785

New inscriptions on some records of giving certain plots of land to various religious establishments in the past would be made. Maung Daung Sayadaw I was asked to write a prologue that could be used with every new inscription. It begins with thirteen Pali verses meaning:

1. Like Mt. Meru that would stand in existence in all the life of the earth, may the Buddha's Religion stands in the whole period of 5,000 years after the Buddha's death; like the sun that shines steadfastly in all twenty four hours, may the Buddha's Religion prospers extensively; like the moon that would not deviate from its course, may the Buddha's Religion continues forever in its course of progress; with these considerations in mind, the King of Kings had carried out the following in maintenance of the Buddha's Religion.
2. Like the just king Nemi of the remote past who had done much to spread the practices of good men, the King of Kings is a descendant of an excellent line of kings.
3. Like Mahasammata at the beginning of the earth, Lord Ratanasinkha had left a thriving line of kings and the King of Kings is a son of that King Alaungmintaya.
4. Like the lion among beasts that could subdue all enemies, there was Lord Sagaing who had conquered all enemies and who gave peace and prosperity to his kingsom in which the Buddha's Religion thrived exceedingly, and the King of Kings is his brother.
5. Like the Garuda among birds that could destroy the most powerful adversaries, there was Lord Ava who was also the master of white elephant, and the King of Kings is his brother.
6. Like Mahavijita of olden times, this true descendant of the line of kings has the eight personal qualifications (Atthanga Samanagata); he also has an extensive fighting forces.
7. He has an enormous supply of weapons and an extensive number of gold, silver and ruby mines; he is lord over several kings who have their own cities and kingdoms, and he is the master of white elephants; in this way there is no limit to the power that he wields.
8. He is the founder of many pagodas including Aung Myay Lawka, Myo Daung, Four Shwe Gus (in the capital) and Fifty Shwe Gus (in provincial towns), and he also built the temple for the Arakanese Mahamuni image together with many monastic establishments. His regnal title is Siri Pavara Vijayanantayasa Tribhuvanaditya Dipati Pandita Maha Dhamma Rajadhiraja and with the power and wealth that resulted from his accumulation ofgreat merit in his former lives, he created in the great land of Tampadipa

9. the invulnerable city of Amimaddanapura and he had had the Abhiseka coronation twice in accordance with the orescriptions made in ancient records.

10. He has, like a Universal Monarch, the good fortune to have an eldest son, who is replete with five personal qualities and who is capable of helping him in the various administrative duties as well. In religious affairs, he put an end to the controvercy of " Left Shoulder" and he had sent Buddhist missionaries to more than fifty places.

11. In the course of promoting the Buddhist Religion, he found that records on gifts of land to religious establishments are in various stages of decay.

12. He considers that this situation should be corrected. It is his wont to improve things whenever they are necessary. In the programme of having records on gifts land copied again, he had ordered to collect all such records from all places in his kingdom.

13. Then the records are checked in order to identify the places mentioned in them and to attach the land at a religious establishment as it was originally done.

Note: This preamble to all new inscriptions of glebe lands in Burma is also published in Amay Daw Hpay 1961, pp. 130-4.

21 July 1786

On 27 January 1784 hereditary chiefs of Amyint Myo, viz.

Yaza Wutta, Friday Born, aged 38 years, Ashay Lay Ya Yo-East Four Hundred Line of Hereditary Chief

Nga Mo, Monday Born, aged 39 years, Ponnya Yo-Ponnya Line

Nga Shwe Pin, Thursday Born, aged 22 years, Anauk Lay Ya Yo-West Four Hundred Line were interrogated. They said:

In Anyint there are the following lines of chiefs, (each in his locality or group having an administrative authority).

1. Ashay Lay Ya Yo-East Four Hundred Line
2. Ponnya Yo-Good Deeds Line
3. Anauk Lay Ya Yo-West Four Hundred Line
4. Myay Daing Yo-Land Track Line
5. Thein Gywe Yo-One Hundred Thousand Riches Line
6. Pwe Yo- Broker Line
7. Tan Yun Yo-Shan Garrison Line
8. Ka Bet Yo-Shield Companions Line
9. Gado Yo- Ferry Line
10. Pauk In Daing Yo- Pauk In Shield Line

There are altogether ten lines.

Genealogy of East Four Hundred Line

Nga Hman (Great Grandfather)
Nga U (Grandfather)
Zayya Butta Yaza (Father)
Yaza Wutta (Present Chief)

Genealogy of Good Deeds Line

Zayya Butta Yaza (Great Great Grandfather)
Zayya Wuttana (Great Grandfather)
Zayya Nanda Yit (Grandfather)
Thiha Yaza Bo (Father)
Nga Mo (Present Chief)

Genealony of West Four Hundred Line

Thiri Thamanta Bo I (Nga Kyaw, Great Great Grandfather)
Nga Thet Shay (Brother of Nga Kyaw)
Nga Myat Tun (Great Grandfather)
Nga Aung Myat (Grandfather; he allowed his son Thiri Thamanta Bo II to become chief before his death)
Thiri Thamanta Bo II (Father)
Nga Shwe Baw (Son of Thiri Thamanta Bo II)
Nga Shwe Pin (Brother of Nga Shwe Baw; Present Chief)

Yaza Wutta, Nga Mo and Nga Shwe Pin maintained that the area under their charge, i.e. Amyint Township, is bounded in the east at a distance of 4 tuin (8 miles / 12.872 km) by the Dan Taing stream with Nga Shan village land on its further bank; in the east at a distance of over 5 tuin (10 miles / 16.09 km) by the Sin Gaung range with Myaung Nabet lands on its other side;

in the south at distance of over 3 tuin (6 miles / 9.654 km) by Pauk In Pike Tan Nyaung Bin that divides Amyint land from that of Ma Gyi Byoke Paik Thin Kya O villages; in the southwest at a distance of over 500 twan:(1/2 tuin / 1 mile / 1.609 km) by Hnaw Bin Hla that divides Amyint land from that of Nga Hkon village; in the west at a distance of over 4 tuin (8 miles / 12.872 km) Tha Sin Kyun Bo Bin that divides Amyint land from that of Yay Main village; in the northwest at a distance of over 3 tuin (6 miles / 9.654 km) by the Ma Yin Nwa Da Byay Yay Win stream that has the land of Let Pan South village on its further bank;

in the north at a distance of over 5 tuin (10 miles / 16.09 km) by Nyaung Gine Zayat Hpyu that divides Amyint land from that of Hlay Gu village; and in the northeast at a distance of over 5 tuin (10 miles / 16.09 km) by the Ba Lon range that divides Amyint land from that of Taw Chaung U village.

In this (Amyint Township) bounded by landmarks mentioned above in each of the eight cardinal points of the compass, there are no other hereditary line of chiefs except those ten given above. Myoza-Lord who received the town as his fief, often entrusted Yaza Wutta as his agent to manage the land comprising:

Fields taking water from U Ka Fields	6.25 acres
Hlaw Ga Fields	60.00 acres
Sit Tha Fields	40.00 acres
Tha Hpan Hkway Field	20.00 acres

Kan Thin Ko Zu Field		6.25 acres
Mi Zaw Gyi Field		6.25 acres
Maung Ma Ga Daw Field		8.00 acres
Kyi Soe Nga Bon Field		6.25 acres
Min Gine Field		20.00 acres
	Total	173.00 acres

There are fields at some higher level so that they cannot receive water by irrigation and they are useless in a year of little rain. Whether they are productive or not, the cultivators are free to use all produce, if there were any, from these 33 pe (57.75 acres as 1 pe = 1.75 acres) of land. From the other 140 pe (245 acres) of land, the culticator pays 10 baskets of paddy from each pe. That brings 1,400 baskets.

Yaza Wutta, Chief of East Four Hundred Line, has his own 50 pe (87.5 acres) of land in Kan Bauk Zauk Wun- slope around weir gate, and he usually receives as his due 1 basket per pe from these lands.

Nga Mo, Chief of Ponnya Line, has his own 40 pe (70 acres) of land in both north and south of Kan Bauk Kan Baik- Weir Sluice Gate, and his due from them is 1 basket per pe.

Nga Shwe Pin, Chief of West Four Hundred Line, has his own 40 pe (70 acres) of land in Kan Bauk Myin Myay Ba Ye Kan- Weir Gate Horsemen's Land of Melon Reservoir, 40 pe (70 acres) of Mayin Than Byin- Autumn Rice Land of Than Byin, and 1.25 pe (2.1875 acres) in Nyaung Zo Kan – Dead Bodhi Tree Reservoir, and his dues from them is (1 basket per pe). From each His Zon – Oil Press, in town, he gets usually 1 viss (3.65 lbs) of oil from each press in a year.

Ponnya Line Chief has 10.25 pe (17.9375 acres) of land in Magwe Kyaung. From each trade depot or brokerage in town, he receives .25 ticals (100 ticals = 1 viss = 3.65 lbs) of silver and 25 ticals of pickled tea on the sale of one basket of pickled tea.

West Four Hundred Chief has 10.25 pe (17.9375 acres) of land in the hills within Ba Aung Taw- Ba Aung Forest, 5 pe (8.75 acres) within Kala Gyi Taw – Kala Gyi Forest, and 80 pe (140 acres) that might produce copper. He gets his dues from these lands.

When a buffalo or an ox is butchered, Myo Thagyi – Town Headman, i. e. Yaza Wutta, gets the rump as his share or due. When a buffalo or a horse or an ox is found without owner, they are kept in the cattle pound for one year and half of the money (realised from its sale is kept by Town Headman and another half) is sent to the royal treasury. Revenue Officers concerned usually send written orders to headmen and village tract chiefs to exempt) religious lands (from taxation). There is no hereditary chief in Madaya In. Chaung U and 3, Ma Gyi Zin and 3, and Tha Bauk and 3, have to pay dues on one crop at a rate of 1 basket of paddy and 5.25 ticals of copper as the main tax and 1 basket of paddy, 1 basket or rice and 25 ticals of copper as the fee for clerks.

These are the statements (made by the Chiefs of Amyint).

In a village or a village tract or a town, there are some cases where its headmanship is contested between two, three or four rivals, resulting in much waste of time and money. This should never happen if a proper check of the line of these hereditary chiefs is made fairly often and when occasion arises, select the nearest heir to the vacancy with reference to these updated records.

Order: Yaza Wutta alone shall become the Chief in Amyint.
This Order was passed on 21 July 1786 and accordingly Yaza Wutta alone becomes Myo Thagyi – Town Headman, in Amyint.

18 October 1786

Servants of the Religion, given by ancient kings and attached to Poppa Yon Kyaung, Kon Gyaung, and four halls at Yaza Mani Sula pagoda, should be reallocated to other religious establishments, because the original establishments are now in ruin. Gunamunindabhidhajamaham marajadhirajaguru said in his memorandum that this attitude has a textual support.

Order:
88 men of Poppa Yon are transferred to Kyaung Daw Gyi
23 men of Kon to Chief Queen's Monastery
10 men of Kon to North Queen's Monastery
20 men of Yaza Mani Sula Northwest Hall to Crown Prince's monastery in Sonda Monastic Establishment
30 men of Yaza Mani Sula Norhtwest Hall to Pitaka Taik and Thudama Zayat
20 men of Yaza Mani Sula Northeast Hall to Princess Kani's Monastery
13 men of Yaza Mani Sula Northeast Hall to Princess Myedu's Monastery
12 men of Yaza Mani Sula Southeast Hall to Middle Queen's Monastery
9 men of Yaza Mani Sula Southwest Hall to Princess Henzada's monastery
Total 225 men

This Order was passed on 18 October 1786 and proclaimed by Nay Myo Thin Gyan, Liaison Officer- cum- Chief of Black Beret Guards.

Chinese U Ti sent (this letter) in 1787 to his young brother who is king in western part of the workd.

1. The East and the West King have common ancestors.

2.The two Kings had never quarreled; in fact they two remained in friendship most closely.

3. The East King most earnestly awaits to hear the happy news that the West King, his family, his retinue, his subjects, etc. are happy and prosperous.

4. In order that the friendship between the two kings might be renewed, strengthened and everlasting, the East King took the initiative to send this gold royal letter.

5. Since 1750, there was no exchange of any sort between the two kings.

6. For mutual benefit, the relationship should be revived. (To mark this most remarkable occasion of having resumed the cordial relations) the following gifts have been sent with the envoy.

8	gold statuettes of the common ancestors of the East King and the West King
8	carpets of felt
10	pieces of brocade
10	horses

Son if Kaing ma who serves the East King is made the Envoy to the West King.

7. Please send back the Envoy together with the Envoys of the West King. To see them would please the East King as if the West King has come himself.

Siripavaravijayanandasankrambhavanatitradhipatipanditamahadhammaraja the West King made this reply to the East King.

17 October 1787

The Buddha's Religion is like a big tree. The heartwood or duraman is the way to Nirvana. The sapwood or laburnum is the wisdom. The bark is a certain stage in the control of mind. The scaly part of bark is the promise to keep away from sins, etc. The branches and leaves are the support given to people who devoted their time to religion. It is not correct that monks should remain doing nothing except keeping away from sins and enjoying free food, etc. They are supposed to study and practice the Religion. As mentioned above, free food, etc. is the branches and leaves of the big tree. The monks should go ahead to enjoy the scaly bark. That is the study and observation of the Vinaya. When monks observe the Vinaya well, it would do good to both men who supported the Religion and monks who formed part of the Religion. The King on the other hand could punish those so- called monks.

(2) Maha Thamada, Salin Town Headman, reported that since 1783 Salin land extends from Situttaya and Ba Ai until it touches the area of Ma Be in the south; until it meets the land of Laung Shay in the north; and until it merges with the land of Arakan in the west. In fact the western extent of Salin land is bounded by the Dalet and Ann streams, though recently Thandwe (Sandoway) officers had seized those wesrern most part of Salin land as theirs. Check the claim of Salin against the 1783 Sittan–Interrogation (on Administra tion),and the extent of Salin area would be finally decided.

(3) Made Ah Laung Island the feeding ground of Yamethin elephant and Martaban elephant.

This Order was passed on 14 December 1787 and proclaimed by Kyaw Zwa Nawyatha.

Note: ROB 14 December 1787, 26 November 1787 and 14 December altogether suggest that Mrok U, Thandwe and Salin lands meet along the water divide on the Arakan Range between Sun Daung and Pauk Sa Taung from where the Dale and Ann streams flow west and Mon and Man east.
